Toffant, Henkhaus chosen; Judge Mateosian defeated

Quad-Cityans—and out-of-town candidates backed by Quad-City voters—fared well in Tuesday's 1978 primary election.

Principal exception was Circuit Judge A. A. "Andy" Mateosian, Granite City, who lost the Democratic nomination for that position. Associate Judge William E. Johnson won 14,112 to 12,796 despite Mateosian's Quad-City edge of 6,668-5,310.

Running without Madison County Democrats' backing, Emil J. Toffant, Madison, a retired state police captain, smashed all opposition in running up a vote total of 14,308. Those nominated this week will compete in the general election Nov. 7.

Trailing in the sheriff balloting were party-endorsed James L. Estes with 6,248, Edward Vounard 4,461, Donald Vaughn 2,297 and Michael Vincent 1,615.

In the Quad-City area, the sheriff candidates' figures in the same order were 7,111-3,730-402-1,029-447. Sheriff John Maeras of Madison did not seek re-election.

Joining Toffant in winning despite Democratic Executive Board opposition was Michael S. "Mick" Henkhaus, who captured the Madison County treasurer nomination from J. H. "Jim" Augustine by a decisive margin, 18,090 to 7,423.

Campaigning with the Democratic party's endorsement, County Regional Superintendent of Schools Harold E. "Gene" Briggs of Nameki Township won 19,019 to 6,402 over Vasil Eftimoff.

In the Quad-City, Henkhaus prevailed 7,476 to 3,522. Supt. Briggs gained renomination with the help of a lead here of 8,160 to 3,466.

Exactly 14,000 voters went to local polling places on a cool but sunny day, including 7,099 at 37 Granite City precincts, 2,768 at 11 Venice Township locations, 2,653 at 12 Nameki Township polls and 1,480 at seven Chouteau Township sites.

Most votes and most competition were on the Democratic side of the voting machines in nearly every polling place. But there were some phases of the Republican voting that drew the public's interest.

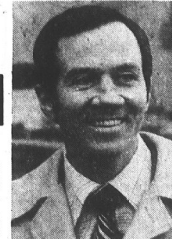

For the Grand Old Party's circuit judge nomination,

Attorney Gerald R. Cohn won 2,159 to 1,643 over R. W. Griffith Jr., the 1968-72 Madison County state's attorney. In the Quad-Cities, Cohn led 297-273.

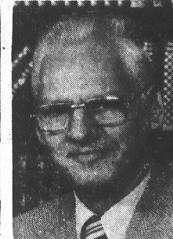

Top Republican vote-getter in non-cumulative balloting was unopposed Governor James R. Thompson, who received 3,925 votes in Madison County. His local total was 660.

Leading the Democrats was Miss Evelyn Bowles, who was unopposed for renomination as county clerk and tallied 26,164 votes to edge attorney general

REP. JIM MCPIKE Leads House voting

SAM W. WOLF Ill. House nominee

McPike, Wolf are nominated

Sam Wolf of Granite City who had a bid for election as state representative of the 56th Legislative District two years ago, eked out a narrow victory to win one of the two Democratic nominations in Tuesday's primary election.

In doing so, Wolf placed second in the state representative balloting, with the highest vote going to incumbent Representative Jim McPike of Alton.

McPike polled a total of 22,231 votes in the district which is made up of 12 Madison County Townships, including the Quad-Cities, and one township (Canton) of St. Clair County.

Wolf tallied 18,568 votes in the district, which gave him a margin of 371 votes over 18,197 votes for incumbent Representative Joe Lucco of Edwardsville, on the basis of unofficial returns.

The fourth candidate vying for one of the two Democratic representative nominations, Joan Seamen of Collinsville, had a total vote of 5,342 in all 13 townships of the 56th district.

Balloting margins between Wolf and Lucco varied throughout the night in Madison County, as precinct returns were reported to the office of County Clerk Evelyn Bowles. McPike's lead and his nomination never appeared doubtful.

Wolf, in fact, received a majority of 1,743 votes in the 12 townships of the 56th district.

Senator Sam big winner

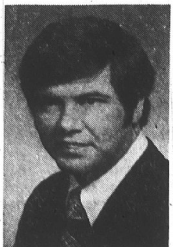

Incumbent State Senator Sam Vadablene of Edwardsville won an easy victory in his bid for the Democratic renomination Tuesday in the 56th Legislative District.

Vadablene polled a total of 16,672 votes in the 13 townships of the 56th district, a majority of five to one over his nearest opponent, Dan O'Neill of Alton.

Ease ambulance fund squeeze

Granite City's financial burden in assuming the full cost of salaries for emergency medical technicians whose salaries have been paid by the Manpower department during the first year of operating the City Ambulance Service, the county manpower division will continue to provide eight EMTs for the next year.

This will require the city to add only five EMTs to the city payroll, instead of all 14 men.

Mayor Paul Schuler

described the agreement as a "big advantage to the city." EMT ambulance operators now receive a monthly salary of $833 per month. The City Council negotiating committee, headed by Alderman Warren Decatur, is conducting negotiations with the EMTs who will join the regular city payroll. Decatur said that an agreement is being worked out. Those who will switch from manpower to city employment also will be given all fringe benefits received by employees of other city departments. When the city initiated the ambulance service on March 15, 1977, it was with the understanding that the Manpower Department would assume the salary costs of the EMTs needed to man four city ambulances in around-the-clock shifts for a period of one year.

On this basis, the city had presumed that it would have to take over the salaries of all of the ambulance operators on March 15 this year, resulting in a sizeable addition to the city's payroll. The Fire Department has 20 trained EMTs, 14 of which man the ambulances. The other six are regular firemen and can be

Treatment fee to rise

An increase in fees for treatment of sanitary sewage at Granite City's secondary sewage treatment plant—possibly by as much as 50 percent—is being studied, it was reported at a meeting of the City Council Wednesday night.

Alderman Glen Sprankle, chairman of the Pollution Plant Committee, told the Press-Record that tentative discussions of such an increase have projected a possible raise of $1 per month, or $3 per quarter.

Granite City residents now pay $2 per month, or $6 per quarter, for sewage treatment.

Mayor Paul Schuler noted that the original bond ordinance and rate schedule establishing fees for sewage treatment provided for an annual review of the fee schedule and authorized revision when needed.

City Clerk Robert Stevens said that financial studies show that the present rates are not providing sufficient revenue to maintain the reserve account for payment of bond principal and interest.

The problem does not involve a shortage in funds for

Miles wins by 70

Morris Miles upset incumbent Walter "Dick" Sparks for the Democratic nomination for the District 16 seat on the Madison County Board during primary balloting Tuesday.

Miles achieved the only upset in Quad-City County Board races, defeating Sparks by 70 votes, 797 to 727. More surprisingly, Miles was the running mate of Madison County sheriff candidate James Estes, who fell more than 8,000 votes short of receiving that nomination.

The primary victory seems to assure Miles of victory in the November general election, since there is no Republican opposition, to date.

Incumbent county board members who won the Democratic nomination for re-election were Louis Whitsell in District 26, Daniel Partney in District 21, William B. Webb in District 19, Nelson Hagnauer and District 20, and Roderick Bauder in District 23. Whitsell held off opposition from two strong candidates for the District 26 nomination. He tallied 61 votes to 469 for Arthur Theis and 396 for Mrs. Helen Hawkins. There were no Republicans in the competition for that seat.

Partney thwarted a strong effort by the party-backed candidate, John "Jeff" Worthen for the District 21 Democratic nomination.

Worthen, a member of the Granite City Park Board, tallied 639 votes, but Partney accumulated 908, winning all but one precinct.

Richard Mathenia, Republican challenger for that seat, tallied 79 votes.

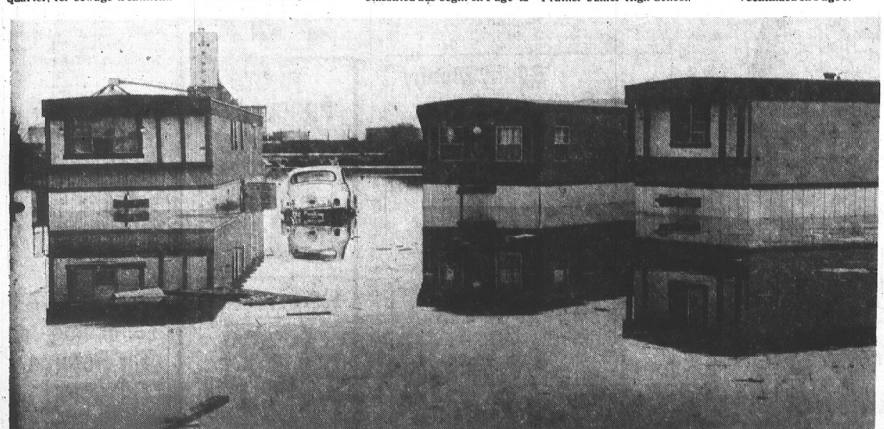

Webb tallied 1,132 votes in his unopposed bid for the District 19 Democratic nomination and will face Republican George Slattery, who earned 131 votes on the GOP side. Hagnauer also was unopposed and earned 1,383. There was no Republican candidate in District 20.

Bauder accumulated 921 votes in his unopposed Democratic nomination bid. He has no Republican opposition. In District 15, which includes Chouteau Precinct 3, George Schmittling defeated former county board member Wayne Bridgewater for the Democratic nomination 413 to 303. There were no Republicans on the ballot in that district. It includes four Wood River precincts and the one Chouteau precinct.

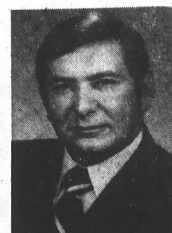

Miles and Sparks votes in Chouteau precincts 1-2-4-5-6-7 and Nameki Precinct 3, in order were, 154-164, 41-56, 167-

RAW SEWAGE WATER engulfs mobile homes in the Village Green Mobile Home Park, Pontoon Beach, Monday after a levee of a holding pond gave way and flooded the immediate area with raw sewage water. Apartments on Bruene Drive and the Gaslight Walk apartments were threatened by the water but Nameoki Township employees, with the help of volunteers, were able to stop the flow of water over the levee with sand bags. Several of the mobile homes were evacuated because of the rising water.

Medical academy proposed

Congressman Melvin Price, Dem., 23rd Illinois District, has joined eight other congressmen in sponsoring legislation to create a National Academy of Medicine.

The bill, if enacted, would establish an academy under the supervision of the United States Surgeon General.

"The purpose of the legislation would be to provide an additional 1,000 physicians each year," said Cong. Price.

A similar measure has been introduced in the Senate.

To date, both the Senate and House versions have received favorable responses not only from the other members of Congress but the public and White House as well, he related.

Price said that "the bill, if enacted, would be the first step to insure there are a sufficient number of family physicians to take care of the health needs of this country."

Kelley to speak

Clarence M. Kelley, former director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, will be the featured speaker at the fifth annual meeting of the Regional Commerce and Growth Association, a luncheon at noon Friday, April 7, at the Sheraton St. Louis Hotel, 910 N. 7th St.

Kelley, a native of Kansas City, is a graduate of the University of Kansas and received a law degree from the University of Kansas City in 1940, when he was admitted to the Missouri Bar.

With the exception of two years, during which he served in the United States Navy, Kelley spent the next 21 years as a special agent of the FBI. Among the FBI field offices he headed were those in Kansas City (1946-1952), Houston (1953-1955), San Francisco (1956-1957), Birmingham (1957-1960) and Memphis (1960-1961).

On his retirement from the FBI in 1961, he was named chief of police in Kansas City, a post he occupied until his 1973 appointment as director of the FBI. He was succeeded last month by St. Louisian William H. Webster, a judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit.

Review board qualification

The Department of Local Government Affairs of the state of Illinois will conduct an examination for persons who wish to qualify for appointment to the Madison County Board of Review. The examination will be held in the County Board room, Madison County Courthouse on April 3 at 10 a.m.

To be eligible for appointment to the Board of Review, a person must be qualified by experience and training in property appraisal and property tax administration. They must also have passed the required examination and must be a resident of Madison County.

Applications and other pertinent material may be obtained from Miss Evelyn M. Bowles, county clerk.

Ex-resident dies in California

Funeral services were held on March 14 in Westminster, Calif., for Mrs. Shirley Bailey, 47, of Westminster, formerly of Granite City.

She died March 11 at the Huntington Intercommunity Hospital, Westminster.

Mrs. Bailey was born in Granite City, attended local schools and graduated from South High School. She and her family have resided in California for 12 years.

Survivors include her husband, Richard Bailey, two children, Richard and Cheryl Bailey, both at home; and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kraus, 2319 Lincoln Ave.

Burial was in Memorial Park, Westminster, Calif.

Joseph's Hospital in Alton, the workshop will be held in the Mississippi Rooms of the University Center April 4 and 5 from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Registration is $35 and includes the price of textbook materials. Deadline for registering is March 28. Participants satisfactorily completing the mini-course will receive 12 contact hours.

"Primary nursing places on the registered nurse full responsibility and accountability for the assessing, planning, implementing and evaluating of nursing care for a reasonable caseload of patients," according to Betty Boyd Walker, director of the program.

"In addition, it emphasizes professional clinical practice and encourages the registered nurse to exert the rightful roles of practitioner, teacher, and manager of patient care and services in a hospital setting. The concept of primary nursing is still new and controversial," Mrs. Walker said. "It is the purpose of this course to present the primary care concept as one alternative of professional nursing. Additional information on this workshop and other workshops offered by the SIUE School of Nursing may be obtained by contacting me at 692-3956."

Open registration also will be held tonight until 7 in the Meridian Ballroom of the University Center. Spring quarter classes will begin Monday, March 27, at 7:30 a.m.

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City South-Bowers hold their Lighting Fund Drive Kick-off Banquet Thursday, March 30 in the new Township Hall, 20th and Delmar Ave. in Granite City beginning at 6 p.m.

The guest speakers for the event have been chosen and will offer two very different perspectives on the world of sports.

JOE LUCCO, the former coach at Edwardsville High School and presently a state legislator, will be one guest speaker.

Joe Lucco was in education for 39 years. He started coaching in his home town of Pocahontas, Ill., in 1934, coaching there eight years. He then coached for two years in Kincaid, Ill.

Under his leadership, Edwardsville sent three basketball, five baseball and five cross-country teams to state competition.

He was the first coach in Illinois to win over 500 basketball games, his total being 562. Lucco was also the first group of coaches named to the Illinois High School Coaches Hall of Fame in Normal, Illinois.

Lucco coached for the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals for nine summers and was manager of the Cardinals' minor league team in Johnson City, Tennessee for one season. One of Lucco's greatest honors, he says, was the fact that in 1961 three of his former Edwardsville basketball players were in the starting lineup at the University of Illinois at one time. This is the only time in the history of the Big Ten Conference that this had ever happened.

He was elected a member of the state legislature in 1974 and will complete his duties there this year.

Lucco is attending spring training with the St. Louis baseball Cardinals in St. Petersburg, Fla., and will cut his vacation short by three days in order to speak at the banquet.

THE OTHER speaker will be Bob Costas, a sports announcer for KMOX-Radio in St. Louis.

A knowledgeable and enthusiastic sports reporter for KMOX Radio, Bob Costas appears on "Sports Open Line" Monday through Friday as well as other sports features throughout the week.

He also does play-by-play broadcasts for Metro 7 Broadcast, University of

JOE LUCCO

BOB COSTAS

Missouri basketball and some CBS network basketball and football events.

When Costas joined KMOX in 1974 to broadcast the "Spirits of St. Louis" basketball games he was the youngest play-by-play announcer in the country. Prior to coming here he worked on radio and television in Syracuse, N. Y., as a sports announcer and weather forecaster.

THE GOAL of the South Lighting Committee is to erect lights for the soccer-baseball complex located near Granite City South High School and Coolidge Junior High on Fehling Road.

The goal of the drive is $75,000, which will pay for the cost of putting up the lights, if done within the coming year.

Also in the Boosters' plans for the sports complex are new dugouts for both the soccer and baseball fields and new press boxes for each. Also included will be a new concession building and a storage building for soccer and baseball equipment.

However, these plans are for the future. The present plans call for only the lights.

Tickets for the banquet are priced at $10 each and are available from any member of the South Boosters' Club.

A SCALE-MODEL of the lighting plans for each field is currently on display at the Granite City Trust Bank.

The lighting has been called for by the Boosters because of poor lighting conditions for soccer, which is played in the fall. Many of the games toward the end of the season have been played in near-darkness in the past and may have been an influence on games' outcomes.

Memorial football field at South cannot be used for soccer because it is too narrow and it is already in use performing "double duty", because it not only serves as the home of the South football team, but the North Steelers as well, for their varsity games. The Little Rascals junior football league also plays its games on the field.

NORTH does conduct its varsity practices and underclassmen games on fields at GCHS North. But there are no lights at North, so the varsity games must be played at Memorial Field.

The School District will take over the responsibility of taking care of the lights once they have been purchased and erected.

Thus, the fields will be available to any school in the district for use for soccer or night baseball.

THE PLANS have been made so that some of the lights which are to be used for baseball will not be used for soccer and vice versa. This is to cut down on the cost of lighting and has been a major item to "sell" the idea to board members.

The Boosters Club will go on from the kick off banquet with many other various fund-raising ideas.

THIS BANQUET is to get the idea out in front of the people," said Boosters president Frank Feigl. "We want as many people to know about it as possible, because we think the lights will be a good thing for the community as a whole for years to come."

Ticket sales are doing well, according to Feigl, but plenty still remain for the banquet.

In the first game of the season for the Cougars, the Gamecocks, who finished second at the NCAA College World Series last year, stymied the Cougar hitters by only allowing two hits, a bunt single by Alton Don Eberlin and a single by catcher Randy Manley, from Highland.

Baseball Steelers hope the sun stays out

By PETE HAYES
Press-Record Sports Editor

GRANITE CITY — "I don't know if we'll ever get to play," said a joking Bob Stegemeier regarding his present "plight."

His "plight" is that of being a high school baseball coach trying to get in a crowded schedule of games while the weatherman refuses to cooperate.

NORTH'S SCHEDULE called for several games this week, including the season-opener Tuesday against Brees Water Dei. But don't get in a hurry grabbing your hat and coat to rush out to a Steele baseball game... they've all been called off for this week, with the possible exception of Saturday's doubleheader at home against Alton. The reason? Wet fields.

"As far as playing it at our place is concerned," said Stegemeier, "it's out of the question. But we might be able to play it at their place if they can get it dried out."

The game that was set for yesterday, March 22, with Roxana has been moved until some time in May and the game that was set for today against Belleville Althoff has been reset for April 14 at North's diamond.

The number one problem North is facing because of the weather is that of hitting. As of today, they've only been able to get outside and take batting practice for three days... with a rubber-tire pitching machine.

"We've had a batting cage ordered so we can hit in the gym," said Stegemeier. "But it didn't arrive yet, so we just have to make do with what we've got."

Two of the North hurlers, Page and sophomore Greg Luchmann are left-handers. Mike Hubbard could also see action from the hill this season, according to Stegemeier.

"Our experience, especially with our pitchers, should be a real help this season," said Stegemeier. "We've got to eliminate the stupid mental mistakes which cost us some ball games last year."

THE INFIELD for the Steelers will feature two first basemen who could see considerable action. Terry Page, the lefty pitcher and Rich Willard will anchor down first.

Mark Churchwell should see action at second while sophomore Bob Batey, who hit a hefty .316 last season will use good range to secure the shortstop position.

THIRD BASEMEN for North will include Doug Rains and Hamilton. Other infielders for the Steelers will be Scott Robertson at second base and shortstop and Jim Robinson, also at second and short.

The catchers for the Steelers will be Mike Simpson, who Stegemeier said is very accurate and Rich Awall, who is a junior with a "very strong arm." Larry Burns is the other North hopeful behind the plate.

THE OUTFIELD for North will not have anyone with a "real shotgun of an arm," according to Stegemeier. "But they'll hit the cut-off man." There will be two returning seniors, Russ Gregory and Bruce Wright. Vic Graham also is a senior, but played very little varsity ball last season.

Larry Burns and Bob Cass will also see action in the Steelers' outfield.

MISSING from this year's team are graduate catcher and Kevin Hayes and Catcher Judy Failoni. Hayes led the team in hitting last year with a .326 average. Failoni is playing baseball at McMurray College.

"We'll have some guys who'll be able to hit the ball with power this year," said Stegemeier. "Gress will be able to slug the ball some and Rains had the ability to hit the ball hard."

Batey hit mostly singles in getting his average up so high last year," he added. "He started out pretty slow (0-for-20) but really came along."

"I told him his job was mainly to get out there and play defense, not to produce offensively, since he was a freshman. I told him if he'd just relax and let things happen, his hitting would come along. It did, obviously."

STEGEMEIER stresses fundamentals in his coaching. "You've got to teach the basics," he said. "Communication between players is so important. Just to let each other know who's got what or who's going where."

Stegemeier calls mental mistakes "boneheads" and makes players who commit them during practice run laps. "Hitting the cutoff man and not letting pop flies drop in the infield... I call it giving a team more than three outs an inning... those are the things we have to work on."

"EVERYBODY makes physical mistakes. It's just the mental ones that kill you."

Stegemeier said he has set no deadline as far as setting a specific starting lineup.

"Being an independent, we're at a little more liberty to take longer than schools in a conference, he said. "We really just play for two tournaments each season. The round-robin one at South at mid-season and the regional at the end of the year."

But right now, North's Steelers are shooting for the season opener... if they can ever get it in.

Cougar golfers in Miami Invitational

This week, Coach Harry Gallatin took his Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville golf team south to participate in the prestigious University of Miami Invitational tournament March 22-25. Last spring, the Cougars finished third at Miami.

The Cougars as of today after 36 holes, are in sixth place overall with a score of 617.

The University of South Florida leads the pack with a 591 total, followed by Miami with 594. Ohio State is third with a 595. Florida International is fourth (603) and Florida Atlantic is fifth (610). The University of North Carolina at Charlotte and Dartmouth are tied for seventh with a score of 625.

'Swim-buoy' to be used by Tri-Cities Area YMCA

A unique new concept in instructional swimming will be initiated at the Tri-Cities Area YMCA beginning Monday, March 27.

The benefits of the swim-buoy are numerous and will be used in the YMCA Diaper Dip and Tadpole classes, for children from six months to five years old or for children with limited swimming experience.

With the use of the Bubble, children become acclimated to water quickly. It provides each child with psychological and physical security, and hence provides the means to help overcome initial fear of water. Each child has a bubble of their own, which provides a tremendous incentive for learning to swim. Children who cannot touch bottom can learn to swim with these who cut and this allows the instructor to give more concentrated instruction and allows for maximum time utilization.

The use of this instructional tool will be initiated beginning this week which is the first session this spring. Swim classes are available for individuals six months of age through Senior Citizens of all ability levels. Convenient daily schedules are available and include 45 minute classes throughout the day on a twice-a-week schedule.

Interested individuals may call the YMCA at 876-7200 for information and to register for classes.

South games off

Today's baseball game between Granite City South and Cahokia which was to have been played at South, has been postponed until Friday, March 31 because of last night's rain.

The freshman game tomorrow at South between the Warriors and Wood River has also been postponed. No make up date for it has yet been selected.

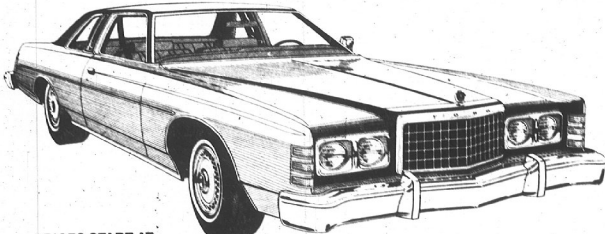

As of press time today, the varsity game Saturday between the Warriors and Quincy, a home game for South, was still on.

SWIM-BUOY IN USE — The new "Swim-Buoy" which will be used by the Tri-Cities Area YMCA to teach younger children how to swim is demonstrated here by Benjamin Bower, 5, and his teacher, Augusta Birchhead.

Logging . . .

By KAREN BURNS

Jogging has become one of America's favorite pastimes, and at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, the activity is alive and well.

SIUE is giving joggers the opportunity to run toward a goal through the "Century Old Jogging Club," a program sponsored by the University's department of campus recreation. According to Beth Rietveld, coordinator of the department, joggers receive a T-shirt for reaching the goal they have set for themselves at the beginning of the school quarter. Though the minimum requirement is only 100 miles, Rietveld said some veteran joggers sign up for as many as 500 miles per quarter.

TO BE ELIGIBLE for the T-shirt, joggers must run from the beginning of the quarter to the last day of final exams. Of the 25 joggers signed up this quarter, 15 have completed the requirements.

Rietveld said that most joggers run outside on a designated one or two-mile course. Some, she added, run in the Bubble Gym, where 15 laps constitute a mile. If the runners wish to run elsewhere, the mileage can be calculated by driving their cars along the same route.

WHY DO some people subject themselves to this now-popular sport which, at times, can be strenuous and perhaps even tortuous?

Some say it makes them feel good, and Jack Shaheen, a professor in the SIUE department of mass communications, is one of those people.

Shaheen completed 100 miles through his participation in the jogging club during winter quarter. "It reflects discipline," he said. "It's a constant challenge." He admits, however, that when finished jogging, "you're a physical wreck, but you're smiling."

SHAHEEN didn't start jogging until a few years ago when he was on sabbatical leave at the American University in Beirut. He said many families jogged on the university's track, which overlooks the Mediterranean sea.

Eventually Shaheen began running too. "I didn't feel so bad when the guys passed me," he said, "but when their wives did."

Shaheen said that for him, it was a slow beginning. At first he was able to run one-eighth of a mile. He now averages two or three miles during the week and four to five miles on the weekends. He said that when he saw the families running in Beirut, he discovered "something positive was happening to everyone." He said he since has found that something positive is happening to him, too.

THOUGH SHAHEEN often jogs outside, he said there are advantages to running in the Bubble Gym. "I like to run with someone," he said. The Bubble Gym offers the opportunity to do this, as others jog there as well. "At the Bubble Gym there is continual encouragement and a reinforcement. It's kind of a nice place to meet other people.

There are people in various disciplines whom I'd never see otherwise."

Shaheen jogs everyday during his lunch hour, and he said it provides a break which most people don't get in a normal lunchtime routine at SIUE. "The (SIUE) cafeteria and University Club are extensions of your office. The Bubble Gym is a break in the environment."

BUT TO HIM the break isn't the most important factor. He said he finds he can handle most critical situations now better than he did before he jogged.

and added that jogging permits an outlet for mental exhaustion.

He concedes, however, that jogging may not be enjoyable for some people. "What's good for me may not necessarily be good for everyone," he said. "But I don't think I'll ever stop jogging."

Cougars split with Div. I foes

The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville tennis team split a pair of dual matches with two tough NCAA Division I opponents this weekend as they beat Illinois State, 9-0, and lost to Arkansas, 6-1.

The match against Illinois State was the first home outing of the year for the Cougars, who dominated the competition. Juan Farrow, the Cougars' number one singles player and reigning Division II titlist, came from behind to win in split sets, 6-2, 6-1, over number one Cardinal player John Willner.

Arjun Fernando, the Cougars' second singles player and former NCAA semifinalist, won handily over Steve Pauly 6-2, 6-1. Brian Miller cruised through the competition, winning 6-1, 6-0 over Rich Blomgren. Bill Rusick won a hard-fought victory over Bill Carson, 7-5, 6-1. Al Miller dominated Steve Hill to win, 6-1, 6-0. Scott Whaley won a 6-2, 6-2 decision over Steve Frank.

Sweeping the doubles matches, Fernando and Farrow beat Pauly and Hill, 6-1, 6-4; Rusick and Kent Smith beat Willner and Carson, 6-3, 6-4; and Miller and Miller defeated Blomgren and Mike Pendleton 6-1, 6-2.

Arkansas, ranked 13th in NCAA Division I, lost the first singles competition but won everything else in trouncing the Cougars, who are currently ranked first in Division II. Farrow won in split sets over Buddy Boaman, 3-6, 6-4, but after that it was all Razorbacks. Rick Cowden won over Fernando, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4, and Ron Hightower defeated Brian Miller, 4-6, 6-2, 6-1. Peter Hawkins won over Rusick 3-6, 6-4, 6-2; Greg Fess beat Kent Smith, 6-2, 6-7, 6-2; and Mark Johnson beat Whaley, 6-1, 6-1.

In doubles, Boaman and Hawking beat Farrow and Fernando, 6-7, 7-6, 7-6; Cowden and Hightower beat Miller and Smith, 6-4, 6-1; and Fess and Rob Cox beat Miller and Whaley, 7-6, 7-6.

The meet was held on Arkansas' outdoor courts, and the Razorbacks were at a slight advantage, due to the fact that they have been playing outdoors. The Cougars have been stuck indoors because of inclement weather.

The Cougars continue their tour of the south when they play Jefferson State, Tuesday, and the University of Alabama Wednesday.

Meet called off

The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville track and field team's outdoor opener with Illinois Wesleyan has been called off due to poor track conditions. It is not known if the meet will be rescheduled. The meet was to have been held today.

Cougars are optimistic

Coach Jack Whitted, normally an optimistic man, is even more so on his track team's chances this season at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

And, with good reason — at least three very good reasons: co-captains, Nate Rice and Bethalto and Stan Vannier of Centralia, plus discus and shot putter extraordinary, Mark Mueller of Mascoutah. That trio will collect a lot of points for Whitted and his Cougar "charges, no doubt of it. Rice is a standout quarter-miler, and Vannier is an excellent distance runner.

In fact, Vannier consistently has flirted with the under four-minute mile and could do it this year.

In addition, and lending overall strength to the Cougar track and field squad, are 11 other returning letter winners, plus a fine crop of recruits. Whitted has induced to wear the SIUE red and white.

The 11 lettermen are: DeWayne Allen, 440 and 880, from Anderson, Ind.; Douglas Paul Curry, sprints, Somerset, N.J.; Dave Dobkowski, half-mile and three-mile, Belleville, Mo.; Mike Grandcolas, sprints, O'Fallon, Mo.; Bob Jacobs, discus-thrower, Alton, Ill.; Bill Jennings, 440, E. St. Louis Senior High; Layne Law, 880 through three-mile, Bethalto, Mo.; Joe Little, pole vaulter, E. St. Louis Senior High; Greg Maag, two-mile, Edwardsville; Steve Marfia, 800, Dave Martin, javelin, shot and discus, McClure High, St. Louis.

Some junior college transfers lined up by Whitted should make the Cougars even bigger threats: John Kalmar, a javelin thrower from Alton; Jim Richardson, a brilliant pole vaulter from Danville, Whitted's hometown; and Dave Mendez, a quartermiler from Somerset, N.J.

Cougars do well in national meet

Dru Meshe and Mark Hatendorf, the two Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville wrestlers who qualified for the NCAA Division I national championships at College Park, Md., last weekend, both turned in excellent performances. Though neither placed in the tournament, each made achievements worthy of note.

Meshe, wrestling with an injured knee, won by fall in the first round over Rob McDowell of San Jose State in 3:12. He was eliminated from the tournament when he lost to Doug Smith of Washington State, 13-8.

Hatendorf pinned seventh-ranked Digby of Young College of Bloomsburg State in the first round and beat Northern Colorado's Mike Decker, 16-11, in the second round to reach the quarterfinals — the first time ever for any Cougar. He lost by fall to the eventual finalist, Eric Wais of Oklahoma State, thus being thrown into the second round of consolation matches. There, he pinned the highly-touted Brad Hansen of Brigham Young University before losing in the consolation quarterfinal match.

Hatendorf twice fell just one win short of gaining Division I All-American honors, as the winner of any quarterfinal match, be it championship or consolation, earns such honors.

Hatendorf's performance places him in the elite top eight 177-pounders in the nation, the best-ever performance by a Cougar wrestler. Hatendorf and Meshe, co-captains of the young Cougar squad, got to the Division I tournament by virtue of their second-place finishes in Division II. Both Cougar grapplers are juniors and will be back to lead the Cougars next year.

Be patient—gardens here are on the way

By CHRIS DOLL, Area Garden Adviser

Spring is here says the calendar, as of late Monday afternoon, but not necessarily so, says Mother Nature.

On the 20th of March, 1978, many gardeners thought everything was 'way behind schedule. This is true, when compared with the last two springs. Vegetable gardens are behind.

But long-term records indicate that perennial fruit plants should be dormant at this time, anyway.

The slow breaking of dormancy means that fruit plants have a better chance to escape frost or freeze injury to buds, flowers or fruit.

It also means that there is still time to apply dormant sprays, to do some pruning and to fertilize as needed.

However, these tasks should be performed at the earliest opportunity. A few days of above-normal temperatures could stimulate growth and everything will be off and growing.

Due to cold, wet soil conditions, vegetable gardening has been restricted to indoors and hotbeds.

To make up for lost time, there are a few practices that gardeners can do to speed up gardening and growth.

First, if the garden area was plowed or spaded in the fall, chances are that the peaks of soil will dry first.

When the soil has firmed and there is enough dry soil area to rake down and make a seed bed, you're in business. The surface of the soil will dry quicker when raked or scratched.

However, if deep tillage is done, be sure to wait until the soil is dry enough not to make a mud ball when squeezed in the hand. Plowing, rototilling, or spading when too wet will destroy soil texture, and resultant growth for the season will be poor.

You can raise soil temperature 12 to 15 degrees Fahrenheit and speed up seed germination by covering rows with clear plastic. This can be either snuggled to the ground or in the form of a tent.

If snuggled on the ground, the plastic must be cut or removed after a few days to enable the seedlings to grow through. Frames and plastic are available for making tents over the rows.

The use of clear plastic is nothing more than a temporary greenhouse effect. It is effective, and earlier plant development will result. But weeds also grow well in the warmer soil, and plants may be more sensitive to frost when the cover is removed. And on really warm days, it may get too hot.

Other methods of covering

5 arrested at GC restaurant

Officers were called to The Barrel Restaurant, 1226 Nineteenth St., at 1 a.m. Tuesday, when five men allegedly refused to leave the premises when asked.

One man yelled an obscenity when an employee came down the stairs and another refused to move when told and reported. The five men, who pushed the man back over a bar stool.

After the group left the building, the disturbance continued on the sidewalk outside and one man stated he "knew" the officer would "catch the officer alone sometime." Further obscenities were yelled, it was alleged, and the five were taken to police headquarters.

At the station, one man made a threatening move toward an officer who pushed him and the man fell over a desk in the squad room. Another man reportedly attempted to come behind the officer involved, but was stopped by another policeman.

Charged with "disorderly conduct" were Mark J. Seago, 20, of 2304 St. Clair Ave., Ted E. Barylake, 28, of 2120 Cottage Ave., Frank J. Barunica, 20, of 1899 Grand Ave., Curtis E. Mathes, 26, of 1809 Bremen Ave., and David L. Wilson, 21, of 2620 Grand Ave.

All were released on payment of $35 cash bond.

Slow return to normal activity after treatment lagoon floods area

Slowly, conditions are returning to normal at the Village Green Mobile Home Park in Pontoon Beach as the health hazard is reduced from a broken lagoon levee which spilled an estimated one million gallons of sewage and water into the area of the mobile home park Monday.

About 124 families, or about 300 persons, were urged by health officials to abandon their mobile homes for fear more of the levee around the Gaslight Walk sanitary lagoon would give way, causing a flood of water to smash through the mobile home park.

Fortunately, the breach in the northern levee of the sanitary lagoon developed slowly, avoiding a "wall of water" which could have caused extensive damage and endangered lives.

The breach became wider and wider Monday as water cascaded out of the lagoon in what was described as "a small Niagara falls," which caused a rearward several blocks away.

Streets and a part of the nearby mobile home park became covered with the polluted water within a short time and officials of the Environmental Protection Agency and the Public Health Department were called in to help.

Mobile home park residents on the levee were instructed to evacuate their homes, due to the possible danger of the levee collapsing suddenly, but a few refused, officials said.

Residents of some duplex buildings on Brune Drive also were requested to evacuate for their own safety.

Workers from several departments then began efforts to halt the leak, which had carved a cut about 20 feet wide and about three deep in the levee wall. Sandbagging operations began with sandbags loaned by the Metro-East Sanitary District.

Involved in the sandbagging were volunteers from the Township, the township's high way department, the Long Lake Fire Department, and Madison County parks department, Manpower workers and others.

Monday evening, the main overflow was stopped by the sandbags, but water which continued to leak around the sandbagged area, continued to erode the levee and some officials doubted whether the levee could hold during the night. Heavy rain during the evening added to their concern.

Efforts to relieve the pressure on the levee were initiated and township officials took a boat into the lagoon to clear the draw.

They found a Christmas tree which had been thrown into the lagoon was the main obstacle blocking the outflow of water and may have been responsible for some of the excess water which put pressure on the levee.

Standing polluted water in the streets and fields near the break was treated with chemicals to reduce the health hazard.

Township officials tried to pump water from the fields back into the lagoon after the leak had been sandbagged, but the effort was mostly unsuccessful and the efforts were halted.

Tuesday morning, there was a meeting between the EPA, Public Health, Pontoon Beach and township officials and representatives of Illinois Federal Savings and Loan, and a contracting firm employed by Illinois to help repair the break. Illinois currently has control over most Gaslight Walk property, officials said.

Agreement was reached on the best way to permanently repair the breach in the levee and work began immediately. Bags of special concrete were thrown into the break area.

Residents of the mobile home park returned to their homes Tuesday, but were advised to boil their drinking water as a precaution against the polluted water in the ground seeping into water lines.

Arrest five in robbery attempt

Four juveniles and an 18-year-old boy were arrested by Venice police Wednesday night as suspects in an attempt to rob a jewelry store.

Police said charges of attempted robbery will be sought against the 18-year-old boy today and that petitions will be sought in juvenile court for the others, all 14 and 15 years old.

Judy Reidelberger, 1240 Klein St., reported she was walking near her home when several boys walked behind her and one of them, wearing a stocking mask, grabbed her about the neck and said, "keep walking."

She said she mugged the youth with her elbow and yelled, causing all of the boys to flee. Police later picked up two of the younger boys and obtained statements from them, the officers said. The other arrests followed.

New decals for 36 boxes on final pickups of mail

Postmaster Herbert Backs of Granite City, announced today that 36 collection boxes in the area soon will begin displaying a new decal that will show the time mail must be deposited to get the last Monday-to-Friday pickup from the box.

"The new decals will cover 30-minute time periods from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. and indicate to the nearest half hour the time that mail must be deposited prior to the last scheduled pickup from the box," Backs said.

"For example, a box with the last scheduled pickup at 6:45 p.m. will display a 6:30 p.m. decal."

"The red, white and blue decal will replace the white star system used to indicate late pickup from collection boxes."

"In addition to the decals, each box will continue to display a collection schedule showing all pickups, including weekdays, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays."

"The new decals are being adopted on a national basis and will appear on over 65,000 high-volume boxes that are located in business areas, on main thoroughfares, at all self-service postal units and in front of all main post offices, classified stations and branches."

Three weeks ago, a confidential source gave officers a new lead and Pontoon Beach police requested the Illinois Division of Investigation join them in checking the new lead.

Max Fritschel, deputy director of that division, said they have been unable to determine a clear motive for the murder, but said Haves had dated a daughter of Mrs. Smith and was acquainted with Mr. Smith.

At least one more arrest is predicted, according to Fritschel.

Haves appeared yesterday afternoon before Madison County Circuit Judge Joseph Barr who denied bond and he was taken to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

City Engineer Monroe Brewer said he plans to hire the consulting firm only for the work that requires the special expertise.

He said the Community Development department has informed him that a negotiated proposal for such work is satisfactory.

The project will be financed with Community Development funds.

Agency for energy aid

The Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission (EOC) has been designated the local administering agency for the federally-funded emergency energy assistance program in Madison County.

The announcement was made today by the Community Services Administration.

Under the program, low-income individuals and families, including the elderly, who meet income qualifications specified by the federal government are eligible to have payments of up to $250 paid to their utility and fuel firms.

About $279,000 is available to help low-income residents of the county offset the winter's increased utility and fuel bills.

Since all monies must be distributed by May 1, EOC officials are contacting township supervisors and social service agencies to establish a network of application sites where residents may apply for the special energy assistance benefits.

The program is tentatively scheduled to begin April 1 in Madison County, pending receipt of final instructions from the Community Services Administration.

Lucco cites vote tally at 3 precincts

State Rep. Joe E. Lucco, Edwardsville Democrat, defeated for renomination in Tuesday's primary election, said yesterday he isn't conceding defeat and will ask County Clerk Evelyn Bowles to study three precincts.

Lucco cited Choateville 561, where Sam Wolf received 561 votes to his 88, Jim McPike's 85 and Joan Seamen's 40; Edwardsville Four, Lucco 40, McPike 22, Mrs. Seamen 22 and Wolf, eight; and Edwardsville Precinct 14, Lucco 47, McPike 23, Mrs. Seamen 14 and Wolf, nine.

Wolf's son, David Wolf, was elected Precinct 35 committee member and campaigned actively for his father, a former representative who was nominated Tuesday along with Rep. McPike for two Assembly positions.

Lucco says the votes cast in Edwardsville Four and 14 indicate the possibility of a close vote tally for representatives should have been larger.

Wolf outdistanced Lucco by 371 votes in the complete unofficial returns. The official canvass has not yet been made by Madison County election authorities.

Higher pay for learners

Subminimum wages that apply to "learners" increased by 85 cents an hour on March 15, the U.S. Department of Labor has announced.

James M. Vela, administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, said, "Due to the 1977 amendments of the Fair Labor Standards Act which raised the statutory minimum wage, regulations concerning learners have been changed to reflect that increase."

The statutory minimum wage rate rose to $2.65 an hour on Jan. 1, 1978. The "learner" rate has increased proportionately.

"Learners" are inexperienced workers in certain skilled industries.

The proposal was published Dec. 16, 1977, in the Federal Register and no negative comments were received, so the rates as proposed have been adopted for industries with learner programs.

The Fair Labor Standards Act is administered by the Wage and Hour Division, Employment Standards Administration of the Department of Labor.

Indian mounds, other parts of this area's past to be studied

St. Louis has its stories about the Mississippi River, steamboats and westward expansion. But it also lays claim to the legendary figure of Stackolee, one of the West's first black bandits.

Unlike John Henry, whose superhuman strength came from natural goodness, Stackolee found his strength in a bloody district of Delmar.

The father is serving with the state penitentiary.

Why and how Stackolee became a legendary figure will be discussed March 31 and April 1 at the Mid-Continent American Studies Association Regional Conference to be hosted by St. Louis University.

Sister Elizabeth Kolmer, director of the St. Louis University American Studies Program, notes that scholars from 27 Eastern and Midwestern universities and colleges will take a "different" look at the Midwestern and American heritage at the spring conference.

"Who, for instance, would normally study the folk legends of Ozark music or Afro-French spiritual songs to find how they fit within American history?" she asks.

The annual Wilson Park Sunrise Service has been set for 6 a.m. Sunday, March 26, at the ice skating rink pavilion.

The Service is planned for the community by representatives of the three Lutheran Churches in Granite City — Concordia, Hope and St. John's.

The public is invited to attend the service beginning promptly at 6 a.m. under the recreation pavilion, or to listen to the live broadcast on Radio Station WGNU-FM (106.5 on the FM dial).

Featured speaker will be the Rev. Roger W. Leenerts, associate secretary for North American Ministries of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, of St. Louis.

His Easter message will be "Easter Excitement." Music will be furnished by a brass Pomeroy.

An anonymous telephone tip that items taken from the service station could be found at Hughes' home led to the recovery of four tires on a vehicle in the driveway and a tool box and tools in the garage, Pomeroy alleged.

The burglary charge was filed against Hughes at 2:15 p.m. Wednesday and he was taken to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville at 2:10 a.m. today.

Plant worker killed

Louis Adams, 56, St. Louis, was killed when a forklift truck tipped over on him and crushed him at National Lead Hoyt Plant, 16th Street and Cleveland Boulevard, at 1:10 p.m. Wednesday.

Co-workers said Mr. Adams was using the forklift truck to pull a boxcar on railroad tracks in the plant yard and when he stopped the forklift, the boxcar continued to roll.

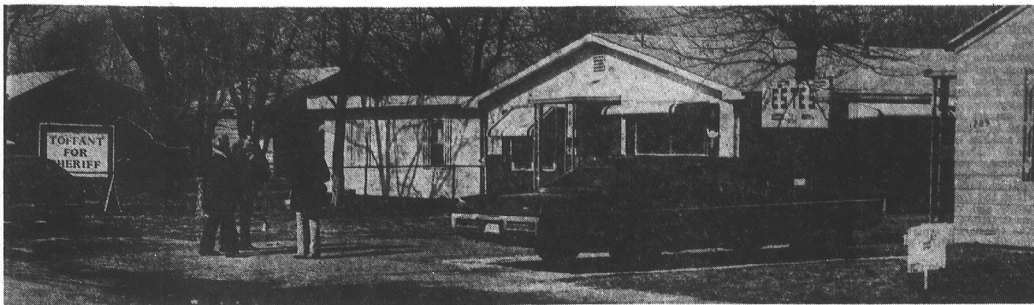

A chain connecting the forklift to the rail car was pulled tight as the boxcar continued to mover and swung the forklift weak pulse and took Mr. Adams to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Doctors diagnosed heart stoppage, a crushed chest with internal injuries and no signs of life, but worked about five minutes before pronouncing Mr. Adams dead.

An inquest into the cause of death will be held in about one week by Madison County Deputy Coroner Edward Werner.

Mr. Adams' body was taken to a St. Louis funeral home where services are pending. He leaves a wife and children.

VOTING PROBLEM, one of the few to develop during a relatively quiet election Tuesday, developed in a Madison County Precinct. Three when backers of Emil J. Toffant in the Madison County sheriff's race objected to this sign for Candidate James Estes attached to a tree outside the polling place in the 1700 block of Courtenay Blvd. They charged the sign was illegal because it was too close to the polling place. Unable to remove the sign because it was on private property, Toffant supporters erected the sign for Toffant, seen at the left.

nominee Richard J. Troy, with 25,555.

Toffant, a newcomer to the political arena, was surprised by his victory margin in the primary but had campaigned hard for the right to run for sheriff in the general election Nov. 7.

He has pledged that "nobody will own me" and that he will be guided only by the goal of fair and efficient law enforcement. He proposes majoring upgrading of training by sending aides to the Federal Bureau of Investigation Academy and other training centers.

His fall opponent, Republican Robert Bilby, has experience with the Illinois Bureau of Investigation. Bilby totaled 3,945 in sparse GOP voting as many decided to ask for Democratic ballots to have a voice in the more numerous primary races.

Charges filed in beating

Larry W. Rutter, 21, and Steven D. Lee, 21, both of 2005 Missouri Ave., were charged with aggravated battery in informational documents issued by the Madison County state's attorney's office Tuesday.

The two men were taken into custody at 12:55 p.m. Monday for investigation into the beating of Frank Cantlon, 2039 Illinois Ave. on March 14.

Both appeared before Associate Judge Thomas Gibbons at 4 p.m. Tuesday and bail was set at $200 cash each.

The pair allegedly were involved in the beating of Cantlon, who walked out of a back room of his shop when he heard the bell ring and someone placed a pillowcase over his head, pulled him backwards and started striking him about the face and head.

The assailants fled from the shop when the door bell sounded again. A man standing nearby

Man tries to cause accident

Robin G. Cowin, 1701 Bremen Ave., reported a man in an older model car deliberately ran into the rear of her auto while she and a girlfriend were driving on Johnson Road at 4:15 a.m. Wednesday.

The man also tried to sidestep her auto and run the car off the road, but instead skidded his own vehicle around in the middle of the pavement, she said.

saw the men run from the store and along the alley between Illinois and Dewey avenues.

A description of the two was given police. Rutter was identified in a lineup Tuesday and Lee reportedly made a statement to officers prior to the lineup, according to police.

Lee was released on a multimillion to Madison County deputies at 2:05 a.m. Wednesday. Rutter was taken by deputies to Madison County jail at 2:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Disorderly charge

At 2:15 a.m. Tuesday, a man stood at the Granite City police desk window tapping on a ledge and wanting change for cigarettes. Told no change was available, the man then asked for a ride to the hospital, according to police.

Informed that officers do not give rides in squad cars, the man kept asking for change and was asked to leave the building, or sit down in the lobby. He refused to leave, saying he had the right as a taxpayer to remain. When he began tapping and annoying the officers again, he was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and lodged in a jail cell, police said.

Arrested in the incident was David H. Davis, 47, of 2114 Missouri Ave.

Charge filed in attempt to acquire drugs

Van Mitchell, 30, of St. Louis, was arrested at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Reese Pharmacy, 2120 Madison Ave., and charged with attempting unlawful acquisition of a controlled substance and misdemeanor theft.

A pharmacist called police saying a man was in the store trying to pass a "bad" prescription, allegedly issued by St. Louis Children's Hospital. Mitchell told officers he had no identification and was searched. A gold tipped walking cane valued at $20, allegedly was found in the leg of his trousers.

The pharmacist said two men and a younger person had tried to have similar prescriptions filled at separate times between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. Monday.

The younger man ran out of the store when the pharmacist decided to investigate the prescription, which involved a pain relieving drug and anti-histamines, reportedly issued by St. Louis Children's and Homer G. Phillips hospitals in St. Louis.

Similar prescriptions have been presented at drug stores elsewhere, including Reese Drugs in Madison, it was learned.

Mitchell was taken before Associate Judge Thomas Gibbons at 4:10 p.m. Tuesday and pleaded innocent. Bond was set at $254 cash.

Soliciting minus a permit charged

David Charles Kohn, 25, of St. Louis, who reported being a missionary for the Unification Church, was arrested and charged with soliciting without a permit at 9 p.m. Tuesday in the vicinity of Northbridge and Watertown Court.

Several complaints from residents in the Maryville Road area about solicitors were received by police and another person was warned to obtain a city permit before the arrest was made.

Kohn, who was selling candles and butterfly displays, was released on payment of $35 cash bond at 9:45 p.m.

Bomb causes house fire

Fire which Venice authorities said was caused by a gasoline bomb thrown in a back room caused extensive damage to a one-story frame home in Eagle Park Acres Tuesday night.

Venice firemen said they answered the alarm at 10:20 p.m. to a home at 302 Allen St., Eagle Park, and were on the scene until 12:05 a.m. Wednesday.

The home was occupied by Robert Woolen. The property was insured by Lettie White, firemen said.

No one was injured in the blaze.

North senior wins Legion's state oratorical contest

Jon William Kastelic, a senior at Granite City High School North, won first place in the Department State Final of the American Legion Oratorical Contest, which was held last week at Carmi (Ill.) Community High School.

The youth, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. (Betty J.) Kastelic, 2 Hanson Drive, is the third Granite Cityan to win the state oratorical contest since the program was conceived in 1939.

Attorney Burton Bernard won the state and national contests in 1932 and Phillip Angelloff won the state competition in 1948. Kastelic competed against five state finalists, representing five divisions in Illinois.

The other contestants finished: Second place, Carolin Munjo, Peoria; third, Andrew Heaton, Wheaton; fourth, Michael Truton, Chicago; and fifth place, Susan Formica, Carlinville.

The Granite City youth now advances to the regional contest, a prelude to the national finals.

The regional event will take place on April 17 at Lansing Community University, Lansing, Mich., with competitors from Kentucky, Michigan, Indiana also speaking.

The regional champion will advance to the sectional level at William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo., on April 19, with the sectional winner going to the national finals at Klamath Falls, Ore., on April 21.

To qualify for the state championship match, Kastelic won first place awards in the city, district and division contests.

As Illinois state champion he received a gold medal and a $1,000 scholarship. He also will receive a $500 scholarship as a regional contestant.

Those competing in the sectional match also will receive a $500 scholarship. National finalists are eligible for scholarships ranging from $8,000 to the first place winner to $2,000 for the fourth place finisher.

Tri-City American Legion Post 113, 1825 State St., sponsored the Granite City youth's entry in the contest. Don Morris is Post 113 oratorical contest chairman. The post commander is Dave Clark.

Kastelic's speech coach is Dr. Goni Michaeloff, chairman of the Speech Department at Granite City High School North. Robert Johnson, history teacher at North High, assisted the state winner in the study of the Constitution.

Dr. Michaeloff has accompanied the youth to the preliminary contests and will continue as his escort and chaperone to the regional event. In the American Legion's contest, all contestants deliver an eight to ten minutes prepared and memorized original oration on some phase of the Constitution.

Additionally, all contestants speak on an extemporaneous topic, based upon some portion of the Constitution and selected five minutes prior to the student delivering the extemporaneous speech. All speak on the same selected topic.

The title of Kastelic's prepared oration is: "The Constitution: A Citizen's Obligation to Protest His Rights."

The topic chosen for the extemporaneous speech at the state finals was Article II, Section 1, Paragraph 2—"Each State shall appoint, in such manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress: But no Senator or Representative, or Person holding an Office of Trust and Profit under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector." Each contestant in the Department State Finals spoke for three to five minutes in the extemporaneous section of the contest.

In 1975, Lisa Groothuis, then a North High Senior, achieved a second place award in the state contest and received a $800 scholarship. She was the first student from the five-year-old North High to be sponsored by Tri-City American Legion Post 113 in the contest and the first to be coached by Dr. Michaeloff.

Jon Kastelic ranks fifth in his class of 383 seniors. He is a past president and former treasurer of the Social Studies Club, secretary of the Masque and Gavel, former editorial editor and present cartoonist on the North Star student newspaper, co-captain of the Debate Squad from 1975 to the present time and a member of the Art and Science clubs, the National Honor Society and the National Forensic League.

Jon has achieved distinction in numerous tournaments and received awards for both oratory and extemporaneous speaking. He qualified for the Illinois High School Association state finals in 1976, 1977 and 1978.

The North student has performed the lead roles in many school plays and with local theater groups, including the Freelance Repertory Company. He was a member of an Explorer post for the theater from 1973 to 1977 and served as post treasurer. Currently, he is helping to establish an Explorer post in law.

In addition to his hobbies in speech, reading, bicycling and tennis, Jon also paints, draws and sculpts and has won many awards in art competition.

Upon graduating from North this year, he is planning to attend Washington University, St. Louis, majoring in a pre-professional business program and eventually going to law school.

Amy Boring marks first birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Boring, 2904 Victory Drive, entertained guests Tuesday in honor of the first birthday of their daughter Amy Renee Boring.

Table appointments followed a theme of "little girl" in pink hues and the centerpiece was a decorated Twisted bird cake. Gifts were presented to the honoree followed by dinner served by the hosts.

Progressive Class holds dinner meet

Mrs. Mina Duggins led the class in the opening song and Mrs. Rachel Westphal offered the meditation. Devotions were presented by Mrs. Minnie Cavins.

Presiding at the business segment was Mrs. Georgia Mitchell, and the secretary's report was given by Mrs. Virginia Taylor. The group agreed to send Easter cards to the shut-ins.

Closing prayer was by Mrs. Bonniere, Mrs. Veach and Mrs. Evelyn Smith.

Others attending were Mesdames Telle Naylor, Iva Biggs, Lena Stephens, Leoda Cobien, Goldie Jones, Naomi Roney, Naomi Burnett, Mamie Stroud, Marguerite Keeton, Gladys Hudgens, Ethel Cox, Dorothy Barnes, the Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Dutton, and Betty Lewis.

Mrs. Lena Stephens, 2115 Illinois Ave., will host the April 10 meeting, it was announced.

GC crime down 14%

Major crimes in eight categories declined 14 percent in Granite City during February, compared to those reported during the same month a year ago, according to a report by Chief of Police Ronald J. Veizer.

A total of 138 crimes was reported last month, a reduction of 23 below the 161 cases occurring in February 1977, the report said.

Of the 138 crimes last month, 30 were solved by arrests, down from 36 cases solved by arrests in February 1977. Police also solved 68 other cases last month for a total of 98 cases cleared by arrests. A total of cases cleared in February 1977 reached 116.

Substantial reductions in the number of auto burglaries and larceny cases were noted during February, with 22 auto burglaries, down from 35, and 46 larceny cases, down from 53. There were two robbery cases last month, down from five, and nine assault cases, down from 19. There were no homicides during the month, and one robbery, the same as in February 1977.

Burglaries increased, however, to a total of 44, up from 26, and the number of auto thefts increased by two, from 12 to 14. Veizer reported there were no traffic fatalities in Granite City during February, but said there was a total of 201 accidents, 40 of them resulting in injuries to 48 persons. In February a year ago there were 156 accidents, 30 of them causing injuries to 38 persons.

Police made a total of 203 traffic arrests during February.

along with 85 other arrests for a total of 288. An additional 35 charges were filed, bringing to 324 the total number of charges filed during the month.

These compare with 172 traffic arrests in February 1977 and 131 other arrests for a total of 303. Seventy-three additional charges were filed for a total of 376 charges of all types in February 1977, the report shows.

The police department received a total of 3,376 complaints during last month.

TIMELY TIPS FROM SCHNUCKS

FOR DYEING YOUR HARD BOILED EASTER EGGS

• Take your eggs out of the refrigerator 24 to 48 hours before boiling to facilitate peeling.

• Place eggs in cold water—add one teaspoon of salt.

• Remove pan when water reaches the boiling point.

• Cool slowly in same pan—do not cool quickly in cold water.

• For best results use medium size eggs because they have thicker shells.

Regional 'world fair' suggested

A Gateway Regional Progress Exposition to the 21st Century—highlighting the accomplishments and potential of the metropolitan St. Louis area—was urged last night by Bi-State Development Agency Executive Director Barry M. Locke.

Addressing the Missouri Society of Professional Engineers at Musial & Biggie's Restaurant Wednesday evening, Locke challenged Missouri and Illinois local business leaders and elected officials to work toward "elimination of regional provincialism" and to pool their efforts in supporting a major two-state exposition. The event, he said, could serve as a target date for completion of many long-planned projects; highlight the region before a national audience as a complete business-tourist-commercial-cultural center; tap growing regional pride, and draw upon varied local ethnic backgrounds now celebrated through annual neighborhood festivals. Locke, who became Bi-State's executive director in December 1977, recalled the impact which the 1904 St. Louis World's Fair had on the area, particularly in terms of recognition value. "Unlike that long-ago celebration, however," he said, "the metropolitan St. Louis area already has the necessary facilities for a regional exposition. We do not need an extravaganza with buildings to be torn down after the crowd has gone home, eventually becoming a drain on the economy. "And we do not need massive exhibitions representing other states. "It would most emphatically be a Missouri-Illinois undertaking—not a country fair or streetcorner bazaar, but a regionwide exposition to showcase the area and its many assets." "We can show, instead, what the full-service metropolitan St. Louis area can offer 365 days a year, year after year, in terms of people, facilities and hospitality, as well as other tangibles which make this region a desirable environment in which to live, work, meet or vacation." Locke cited a recent national study placing St. Louis among the top 10 U.S. markets that boast economic indicators which point out unusual growth potential. Included in the assessment were St. Louis plans to upgrade mass transit, highways, bridges and port facilities. "The report," he said, "is evidence that our various efforts at improving the region are beginning to pay off." Locke emphasized that a successful exposition would depend in great measure on the cooperation of its backers to provide an overview which would represent a regionwide approach. "I am suggesting that, once and for all, we work toward the elimination of provincialism and move toward a frank and comprehensive approach to this area."

"Missouri and Illinois have much in common, and it is essential that we begin to consider the entire area, not just one Missouri city or one Illinois county or one port authority or one taxing district."

Two-state cooperation, Locke stressed, has enabled the Bi-State Development Agency to make strides in various transportation and public works projects on both sides of the Mississippi.

He cited the agency's operation of a 181-mile bus system, its participation in construction and operation of the popular Gateway Arch transportation system, its operation of Bi-State Parks Airport in Cahokia, Ill., and its role as regional port coordinator as demonstrations of potential benefits to be gained through cooperative efforts.

Bi-State, Locke told the engineers, is considering or being considered for involvement in projects totaling nearly one-quarter of a billion dollars.

Included are construction, expansion and renovation of transit garage facilities, expansion plans at Bi-State Parks Airport, and participation in construction of a new coal transfer terminal in north St. Louis.

A half-billion-dollar program of light rail vehicles on fixed guideways and improved bus service, advanced by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council would also have major implications for Bi-State, Locke said.

His proposed mid-1980s target date for an exposition could see the completion of a number of these projects, he said, as well as efforts to renovate bridges, reorganize area rail operations, improve the riverfront, complete Arch and convention center parking improvements, make major progress on urban renewal, and investigate a downtown "people mover," bus and pedestrian malls, and application of other transit-oriented technological advances.

Bi-State, Locke emphasized, is not empowered to enter the exposition field.

"Nor am I suggesting or urging any specifics," he said. "I want to plant the seed of challenge to our community to come together in a joint effort which could have national implications—and a lasting impact on the region which provides the livelihood for all of us."

Luke 24:6... "He is not here, but is risen..." The great cornerstone of the Christian faith is the fact that our Savior lives! He conquered death, the greatest enemy of mankind. His resurrection made the Cross a symbol of victory instead of defeat. In parts of the world, where the Cross is displayed, it gives hope and encouragement to believers. He is risen! Multiplied millions will lift their voices and their hearts and praise God for His love this Easter Sunday. He died for us. In our place. He bore our iniquities. He became sin for us that we, being sinners, might be made the righteousness of God in Him. Let all of us together lift our voices and praise Him for His goodness! Today.

Most incumbent committeemen are re-elected

While bigger primary election races grab the headlines, a great deal of effort was spent by incumbent precinct committeemen to hold their jobs, and most were successful in their re-election attempts.

Voters in most precincts showed confidence in their incumbent committeemen, and most of the new committeemen were in precincts where last year's redistricting either created new precincts or moved incumbents into different precincts.

Among the races which drew considerable attention was Granite City Precinct 11 where Willard Herring, 2304 Hodges Ave., defeated Township Assessor Von Dee Cruse, 2220 Edwards St., 227 to 102, to win the Democratic committeeman post.

Also of interest was a three-way race in Nameoki Township Precinct One, where one vote decided the replacement for Paul Bennett, who did not seek re-election.

William Luchini Sr., was selected as the Democratic precinct committeeman in Nameoki Precinct One with 53 votes to 52 for Village Board President Floyd David Moss. Mrs. Lillian Singer tallied 46 in that three-way race.

Vote tallies for Democratic precinct committeemen races in Granite City precincts follow, with the incumbent indicated by a plus sign (+).

John Sabo will lead the singing and the soloists will be Miss Elaine Bauer of Glen Carbon and Mrs. Everett (Susan) Hopkins of Maryville. with Miss Bauer and John Sabo as soloists. The Rev. L. S. Bassoo, a missionary, will give the Easter meditation, and the congregation will sing "Are Ye Able? Yes, We Are Able," to conclude the program. A continental breakfast will be served at the close of the sunrise services. At 9 a.m. Sunday, church school classes will present a special Easter program with primary, junior and kindergarten children performing. The Rev. John Pithers of the Assembly of God Church will be the speaker at the 7 o'clock Sunday evening service. Miss Bauer will be the soloist and seniors and junior students will present a program. Former church members and the public are invited to attend the special Easter program.

Mrs. Bethel J. Davis, Mission superintendent, said today.

Car stolen, burned in Bridgeton, Mo.

Stacie L. Horton, 2320 Edwards St., arrived home from work at 7 p.m. Monday, parked her 1974 Delia 88 Oldsmobile in the driveway and believed the car was there until Bridgeton (Mo.) Police Department called at 10 p.m., notifying her the vehicle had been found burning in their city. Mrs. Horton then called Granite City police and reported the incident.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Thurs., March 23, 1978 Page 21

Drug charge filed

Michael J. Portell, 19, of 3500 Johnson Road, was named in an informational document from the Madison County state's attorney's office Monday afternoon which charges him with unlawful possession of a controlled substance. Portell was picked up at his home at 3:05 a.m. Tuesday on the charge and was held in the Madison City Jail, since the Granite City Jail already was full of other prisoners from unrelated cases.

The informational document alleges Portell had five glass vials containing 47 LSD pills in his possession when he was arrested Feb. 26. Two youths with him were charged with unlawful possession of cannabis at that time, but no charges were filed against Portell until laboratory tests could be conducted on the tablets allegedly taken from him. Since the state crime laboratory at Fairview Heights no longer has a registered chemist, suspected drugs must be sent to Joliet for analysis, causing delays of more than three weeks in the filing of drug charges.

The Madison County state's attorney's warrant office has consistently declined to allow felony drug charges to be filed until laboratory results are available, even though the police conduct chemical field-tests on suspect drugs to determine probable cause for the charges.

He posted $1,000 cash bond and was released at 10:15 a.m. Tuesday.

Scholarship program by DAV planned

Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 33, met Monday night at the DAV Hall, 1417 Nineteenth St., to complete arrangements for a scholarship program which will be offered to area graduating seniors. Commander Bob Kennerly conducted the session. He announced those who are interested in applying for a scholarship are to submit information and an application to the DAV Hall.

A screening committee comprised of the commander, Mac McGuire and Andy Gitchoff, will select the most qualified recipient, it was noted. More information on the newly instituted project will be available at the April 17 meeting, the commander added.

Elected to serve as delegates to the state convention on June 1-4 in Elgin, Ill., were Kennerly, Joe Heffley, McGuire, Charles Rittenberger, Bob Douglas and Andy Gitchoff. Members also approved plans to contribute to other community functions, during the meeting.

KIRK POTILLO

Kirk Potillo elected master counselor

Kirk A. Potillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Potillo, 2445 Illinois Ave., was elected master counselor of James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay, at its regular meeting Tuesday night at the Masonic Temple. He is a junior at Granite City High School South and a member of the stage, concert and marching bands. He also attends and is a member of the Dewey Avenue United Methodist Church.

Other officers elected during the meeting were: Paul S. Clinard, senior counselor; Bradley W. Lane, junior counselor; R. David Harley, chaplain; and Geoffrey D. Wofford, treasurer.

The elected and appointed officers will be installed in a public ceremony on Tuesday, April 10, beginning at 7:30 at the Masonic Temple, 20th Street and Cleveland Boulevard.

Before closing the meeting the master counselor-elect, announced that the DeMolays will observe the spring obligatory church attendance by attending the 10:30 a.m. service at the Dewey Avenue United Methodist Church, 2138 Dewey Ave., on Sunday, April 9. He invited the families of the DeMolays to join in the group attendance.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a long white gown created with a fitted bodice, high neckline and long sheer sleeves, accented with Venise lace motifs.

Her semi full skirt fell softly from the Empire waistline. The wide band of Venise lace edged the full length veil of bridal illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations and daisies intermingled with sprigs of blue baby's breath and tied with white streamers.

GC club visits flower show

The March meeting of Clover Garden Club was a pilgrimage to Plaza Fontaine in St. Louis to view the Spring Flower and Garden Festival. The event is sponsored by the St. Louis Florists, the Landscape and Nurserymen of St. Louis, the St. Louis Growers Allied Florists, the Orchid Society of St. Louis and Horticulture Department of the University of Missouri.

After a luncheon at the Plaza, the local members enjoyed a program given by Jim Morley of Bozay-Morley Florists, and Jack Schneider of Schneider, Inc., which featured a floral theme coordinated with a style show.

A Victorian garden inspired by the 1904 St. Louis World's Fair was the background for the affair.

Other displays included the azalea garden, a cactus and succulent garden built around orchids in bloom.

Mrs. Eldon Meikamp, club president, informed the members of the District V board meeting to be held in Belleville, and she added reservations are due for the District V annual meeting, set for March 30 at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road.

Host club will be the Garden Study Club of Granite City. The program on Landscaping with Trees, Shrubs and Flowers will be presented by Robert Dingwell, horticulturist of the Missouri Botanical Gardens, she added.

Attending the St. Louis outing were Mrs. Meikamp, and Mesdames William Bradley, Fred Orr, Kenneth Brokaw, Clarence Etheridge, Robert McCauley, Leo Roman, John Lentz, John Jenkins and her guest Mrs. William Daniels.

West Granite Sunrise Services

Easter Sunrise Services will be conducted at 6:30 a.m. Sunday at Prather Junior High School, under the auspices of the churches located in the West Granite area.

The Rev. Eugene Beasley, minister of the Dewey Avenue Methodist Church, will compose the choir and special music selections will feature soloists from various churches.

Cooperating churches include Christ Gospel Church, Old Camp Meeting Tabernacle Church, Apostolic Church, Bethel Chapel Pentecostal Church, Victory Pentecostal Church of God, West Twenty-second Baptist Church, Second Baptist Church and Dewey Avenue Methodist Church.

More sr. citizen problems solved

(Office of Lieutenant Governor Dave O'Neil)

Q. Is your office, as well as other state agencies, really aware of the many problems of the elderly? Are the agencies making an effort to let senior citizens know how to solve their problems?

A. State government is becoming more responsive to the needs of senior citizens, and is more effectively communicating the services available for assisting the elderly.

There has been a sharp increase in the number of telephone calls, letters and in-person requests for assistance at the two statewide Senior Action Centers, operated by this office, during January and February this year.

Cases reported in both offices, Chicago and Springfield, totaled over 16,700 for the first two months of 1978, compared to the same period last year, when 2,360 persons were served.

The total number of telephone calls, letters and in-person requests for 1977 at the two Senior Action Centers almost doubled, compared to 1976.

We served over 23,500 seniors last year, compared to 12,950 the previous year.

In effect, we have served almost as many seniors the first two months of this year as we did the entire year of 1977, without increasing the number of staff over the previous administration.

The credit for this goes to more efficient management of communicating the services of Senior Action Centers to seniors by my staff, as well as to the assistance of the state departments on Aging and Revenue.

Q. What, then, have you found out to be the major problem shared by senior citizens?

A. The problems which seniors report most frequently to the Senior Action Centers include tax rebates, such as the Circuit Breaker, plus housing, health, food and nutrition, transportation, and income maintenance.

It is noteworthy that the Senior Action Centers are staffed by senior citizens who have developed an expertise in problems confronted by the elderly, and the appropriate means and available resources to resolve these problems where possible.

The SAC's are not referral services. Staff members take down the names, addresses and telephone numbers of persons who call for assistance and then make anywhere from one to three more telephone calls to find the solution to the seniors' problems.

Staff members then get directly back in touch with the persons with the problems, and give them direct answers to their questions.

Man charged

Don Doty Jr., 3508 Kirkpatrick Homes, reported two men walked up to him at 8:25 p.m. Monday in the 3800 block of Kirkpatrick Homes and one said, "We don't like the way you are looking at us." Both started to strike him about the face, he said.

David R. Bricker, 21, of Cedar Rapids, reportedly was picked up by officers nearby and charged with battery (city). The second man allegedly involved still is being sought.

Meyers, who also was charged with illegal transportation of alcohol and having no driver's license, reportedly was driving a one-ton stakebed truck belonging to the Midwest Stone firm, where he is an employee.

Hadley said the truck was to have been returned to the business place the evening of March 18, after a job was completed. He had reported the truck missing at 12:30 p.m. Monday.

An officer saw the vehicle traveling north on Madison Avenue and recalled the truck being listed as stolen in an earlier report.

An open bottle of beer and two full beer bottles allegedly were confiscated from inside the truck cab when the vehicle was halted.

He was released to his parents on notice to appear for a hearing at 1 p.m. April 27.

Three arrested

The driver of an auto being operated with one tail-light was stopped by police at E. 23rd Street and Bromley Avenue at 7:35 p.m. Tuesday and was arrested for illegal transportation of alcohol.

Charged with alcohol transportation was Jimmie E. McCallum, 22, of 2316 Terminal Ave., after police allegedly found an empty eight-pack carton of beer between the front seats and a half full bottle of beer. Two empty bottles were discovered on the rear floorboards.

Passengers in the vehicle, Johnnie E. McCallum, 17, of the Terminal Avenue address, and a 16-year-old youth were charged with illegal possession of alcohol.

Toffant and Henkhaus win in primary despite lack of party backing; Wolf assures return to General Assembly service

As is true in most elections, Quad-City voters reacted to Tuesday's primary balloting with mixed emotions. In summary, the results were constructive and will contribute to the cause of good government.

Former State Police Commander Emil Toffant's towering victory in the Democratic primary for sheriff speaks well of the good judgment of Madison County voters. His independent candidacy offered an unusual opportunity to achieve excellence, and the public responded with massive support for him.

Michael Henkhaus captured the county treasurer nomination by a wide margin despite the fact that his opponent had the endorsement of the County Democratic Executive Board.

Regional School Superintendent Harold E. "Gene" Briggs gained renomination by a nearly 3-1 margin.

Area voters backed all incumbent legislators with the exception of Rep. Joe E. Lucco, who lost by 371 votes to former Illinois House member Sam Wolf. The latter, a Granite City realtor, served conscientiously as a representative from October 1975 to January 1977 and Quad-Citians showed they want him back at Springfield — along with Rep. Jim McPike and Rep. Everett Steele — by casting 15,000 cumulative votes for him here on Tuesday.

Daniel Stack won his bid for the Republican nomination as the Nov. 7 opponent of 34-year Congressman Melvin Price, but Circuit Judge A. A. "Andy" Maloney lost out in seeking the Democratic nomination for that judicial post. Rivals in the fall voting for judge will be Democrat William Johnson and experienced Louis Whittell and Daniel Parney defeated Democratic primary opponents but veteran Walter Sparks lost 797-727 to Morris Miles, a longtime rival.

Statewide races saw Democrats Alex Seith and Michael Bakalis gain expected nominations for U.S. senator and governor, with Roland Burris (D) and John W. Castle (R) gaining state comptroller nominations and Jerome Cosentino (D) and James M. Skelton (R) winning the state treasurer primary.

It appears that responsible, capable individuals have been chosen as nominees for most offices and will be able to wage informative campaigns between now and the general election. The Toffant, Wolf and Henkhaus victories stand out as particularly bright aspects of the 1978 primary.

Labor-management-builder cooperation for area prosperity

"I hope IMAGE will do for the Illinois construction industry what PRIDE has done for St. Louis," a spokesman commented at a press conference last week. We echo this sentiment.

The first industry-wide development program in the history of the Southern Illinois construction industry, IMAGE is a cooperative effort that is intended to unite labor, management and buyers of construction to enhance the construction economy of the area.

An acronym for Involvement and Management Advance Growth and Employment, IMAGE is expected to bring to public attention improvements made within the area construction industry in recent years, as well as providing a vehicle for further improvements.

Government officials hold a trust that must not be violated

Press-Record Springfield Bureau — The conviction of two Chicago legislators on bribery charges has cast another black mark on the reputation of the General Assembly.

Unfortunately for those lawmakers dedicated to the task entrusted to them — and they are in the vast majority — a disturbing number of legislators have been involved in situations resulting in charges, or convictions against them.

Facing sentencing now are Reps. John F. Wall and Walter "Babe" McAvoy, who were found guilty in U.S. District Court of accepting bribes in exchange for supporting legislation to reimburse private employment agencies for each Vietnam veteran placed in a job.

Perhaps it does not seem fair to the hundreds of legislators who have diligently upheld the public trust placed in them, but the violation of that trust by the few seriously erodes the esteem felt for the General Assembly as a body.

Crime of any type is an affront to society, but when it is perpetrated by those elected to represent the people, it is especially despicable.

In the last six years, more than a dozen legislators have been convicted of crimes ranging from mail forgery, misuse of public funds, conspiracy to commit extortion, tax evasion to bribery.

The most blatant of these cases involved an $80,000 slush fund scandal to secure legislative passage in 1972 of a bill to raise weight limits for trucks carrying ready-mix concrete. Three lawmakers in office at that time and two former legislators were found guilty in that case.

Some believe the voters of Illinois have grown accustomed to scandal in the General Assembly. And true, sometimes we hear people sarcastically say it's what they've come to expect.

But we don't believe it's what the majority of Illinois citizens want.

Voters increasingly have been electing individuals of high moral and ethical character who have done much to restore confidence of the people in their elected officials.

We hope the latest convictions will serve as a warning to those legislators walking the crooked mile: While some may escape undetected, many are caught.

All legislators must be conscious of the immense responsibility they have to serve the interests of all people of this state.

Their election indicates they earned the confidence of the voters. When their actions destroy that confidence, they do so not only for themselves but for their fellow lawmakers as well.

At the sentencing of one lawmaker a few years back, the judge noted that the man was an elected official, leader and lawmaker who had let down his fellow legislators and citizens. Such individuals merit no sympathy.

Elected officials are expected to adhere to a far higher standard than the individual who remains a private citizen.

The democratic system of representative government is based on the public trust — a moral trust.

In the functioning of government — whether it be executive, legislative or judicial — elected officials take the place of the people. What they do reflects on the system as well as themselves.

This is a trust all of our public officials must not be allowed to violate.

Series of incidents uses all ambulances

Nearly everyone in the Quad-City area heard sirens between 12:55 and 1:30 p.m. yesterday as nearly every available Granite City ambulance and several pieces of fire equipment were called out on several incidents, almost simultaneously.

At 1:10 p.m. yesterday, ambulance personnel reported one ambulance was assigned to a sick case on Salver Street in Venice, and another was called to Madison where a boy had been struck by a car on Third Street.

National Lead officials at the Hoyt Plant called for an ambulance and a Fire Department rescue unit after a forklift truck tipped over on an employee, killing him.

Madison fire units were called to the Maers Industrial Park for a second fire there and Granite City firemen were called to a fire at 1309 Carr St. Zeline Dickinson, Brooklyn, fell from a moving Bi-State bus in the parking lot of Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center and an ambulance was summoned. She injured her back and was transferred to St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis after treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Another ambulance was requested for a minor injury, but the caller had to be told there would be a wait since all ambulances were busy at that time.

David Nelson, 46, of 406a Madison Ave., was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by ambulance after he was struck and knocked down by a car at 1500 Third St., Madison, at 12:55 p.m. Wednesday.

The boy was treated for pain to the back and abrasions to the right elbow and was released. Police said Craig L. Murray, 127 Calhoun St., Venice, driver of the car, told them the boy ran from behind a truck into the path of this car.

The Madison fire was extinguished and Granite City firemen said reports on the Carr Street fire were unavailable today. A story on the National Lead fatal accident appears elsewhere in today's issue.

Shaw will discuss education's future

Dr. Kenneth A. Shaw, 39, president of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, will discuss "The Future of Higher Education" in a talk here next Tuesday, March 28.

Dr. Shaw will address the Granite City Club at noon at the YMCA auditorium.

Program chairman will be Dr. George T. Wilkins Sr., former Illinois state superintendent of public instruction. Donald Shaffner is president of the club.

Beginning his duties at SIUE

14 months ago, Dr. Shaw is only the second president of the local university since it was established in 1958 and became operationally autonomous in 1971.

Previously, he was vice-president and dean of Towson State University, Baltimore, Md.

Born in Granite City, Dr. Shaw spent his childhood in Edwardsville.

Candidate discusses funds and curriculum

David Partney, a local businessman who has filed for the School District Nine Board of Education, said this week, "I am particularly interested in this time in two major areas of education which are of immediate concern, curriculum and financing."

"I pledge to strive for restoration of the three 'I's' — the school curriculum, with its response to numerous comments by both business and labor, I have ascertained that there seems to be a definite deficiency in this area of the curriculum."

"This assumption is substantiated by frequent press releases in the news media concerning the inability of the high school graduates to perform above an elementary level in the areas of reading, writing and arithmetic throughout the country.

"Another issue of prime importance that I am concerned with is the seeming inability of the school district to operate in a businesslike manner with the taxpayers' money."

"According to an article in the Press-Record dated Feb. 23, the school district anticipates borrowing $1.6 million. This indicates the necessity for a tighter financial operation, brought about by more efficient spending without reducing the quality of education."

"I feel that my experience in business and civic affairs of our community qualifies me to give the types of leadership and professional management so needed by the school district," Partney concluded.

AUTO HITS DIVIDER

Late last night, two hurt

Two men were injured when the auto of Daniel Gurey, 40, East Alton, struck a concrete divider on Route 3 north of Bissell Ave. in Venice Township at 9:40 p.m. Wednesday.

Guiney declined treatment but a passenger, Norman White, 43, Brighton, Ill., was treated for a four-inch cut to the top of his head and was transferred to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, with possible head injuries.

HURT AS AUTO ROLLS

Jeffrey Arnold, 16, of 2721 Birch, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 6:40 a.m. Tuesday for treatment of left hip, shoulder and elbow injuries suffered in an auto crash.

Treated at the same time was Fred Potochey, 16, of 2840 Lincoln Ave., who was in an auto that rolled over and sustained a forehead cut and bruises to the head, neck and left elbow.

TRUCKERS INJURED

Two Texans were injured at 2:50 a.m. today when their truck jackknifed. Treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital were Tom Garner, 48, of Forney, Tex., who had multiple abrasions and pain in the right rib cage, and Ted Schleback, 48, of Dallas, Tex., who has pain in the left ribs. Both had x-rays taken and were released.

$5,000 loot is taken

About $5,000 to $9,000 cash was believed stolen during a burglary Monday at L. J. Ross, Inc., on Route 111 which was discovered yesterday.

Officials discovered a large hole in the east concrete block wall of the building, leading into the vault. A forklift truck was parked near the hole which may have been used to ram the wall.

The vault was ransacked and cash boxes were opened and money bags torn open, Madison County sheriff's deputies said.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL

Tom Herst, 16, of 503 Kirkpatrick Home, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 6:40 a.m. Tuesday with injuries suffered in an auto accident. He had abrasions to the left hip, pain in the left shoulder and an injury to the right hip.

INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Michael Rebstok, 17, of 2206 Grand Ave., was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 2:15 p.m. Monday for pains in the back and head, incurred in an auto accident. He had x-rays taken and was released.

Terrorists are thugs; Europe gave in to them once before

Wall Street Journal — Political terrorism is once again in the headlines — the kidnapping of Aldo Moro in Rome, the latest South Moluccan adventure in Holland and the Palestinian raid in Israel that touched off a shooting war.

We cannot explore here all the many explanations of the terrorist virus.

The displacement of the South Moluccans, and their seeming antipathy toward the Dutch, in fact stems from their staunch loyalty to the Dutch when Indonesia was struggling for independence a quarter-century ago.

South Moluccans came to Holland to escape the new Indonesian regime now think the Dutch owe them a homeland.

You can, if you wish, go all the way back to the "plantation" of English settlers in Ireland in 1556 to explain the seemingly endless terrorism and killing in Ulster.

You can attribute the murderous discontents of Italy's Red Brigades to a society that is too stratified and bureaucratized to meet the rising expectations of youth.

The Baader-Meinhof phenomenon in Germany might be called the paranoia of a postwar generation that was over-exposed to worldwide opprobrium and Cold War tensions.

The terrorism of Latin America could be called an attack on an anachronistic feudalism that refuses to give way. And so forth.

These explanations all contain a grain of truth.

For that reason, terrorists sometimes attract sympathy as well as revulsion.

Young people, in particular, very often admire their daring and feel that their grievances must be legitimate if they take such terrible risks and commit such awful deeds.

But there is a great deal less to admire and a great deal more not to admire about terrorism than these romantic notions perceive.

True terrorists are very few in number, despite the havoc they wreak.

And their actions often reflect nothing more nor less than warped psychology.

They often have no clearcut political goal beyond the destruction of existing authority.

Even those who style themselves as part of the "new left" or "Trotskyite" underground have little notion of how they would run a modern state.

Some, if the Baader-Meinhof case is any guide, are strongly motivated by suicidal impulses.

Their grievances usually are highly exaggerated.

It should not be beyond the mind of man to find a way for South Moluccans to return to Indonesia and live in some degree of peace there now that the revolution is distant reality.

Few law-abiding Irishmen of any religious or political belief still sympathize with the IRA killers.

Germany is a prosperous welfare state, hardly a sinkhole of despair.

Italy, for all its shortcomings, is hardly a nation of crushed spirits.

There is no shortage of political leaders who would grant the Palestinians enormous concessions if they would settle for something less than the destruction of Israel.

This is not to say that terrorism has no political importance. Terrorists may have little on their minds beyond some deep-seated hatred and their next adventures, but they often are supported by politicians who have a great deal on their minds.

Terrorists of any stripe are useful to the imperialistic designs of the Soviet Union, for example.

They disrupt liberal societies, spreading fear and uncertainty and raising a demand for a stronger hand by the state. It is not insignificant that one of the first persons Premier Andreotti of Italy turned to after the Moro kidnapping was Enrico Berlinguer, the head of the Italian Communist Party.

The Communists are now partners in the Italian government in all but an official sense. And Communists, by long training, are skillful at dealing with disorder and dissent.

Thus, the Russians and their allies in the Third World have no reluctance at all to encourage terrorism in the liberal democracies and to even train terrorists in more effective forms of murder and destruction.

Sometimes, if it never occurs to the terrorists themselves that should the Russians succeed in subverting liberal democracy and installing communism in its place, the terrorists who helped them first will be marked first for liquidation.

Thinking ahead is not one of the strong points of fanatics.

The only recourse for liberal democracies is to deal severely with terrorists, totally rejecting claims that this alleged form of political expression has any justification.

Terrorists are thugs and nothing more. Europe succumbed to thugs once before in recent history.

If the free world is to succumb again, it should at least do so without a fight.

David E. Canada, 22, of 109 Warsaw Lane, Mitchell, faces four charges after being arrested late last night and again early this morning.

Police first charged Canada with careless driving after his auto was seen near Kirkpatrick at 12:20 a.m. Thursday. He was released after being issued a ticket.

At 1:35 a.m. Thursday, police were told a car matching the description of Canada's auto had just struck a pedestrian on Namek Road and left the scene.

Arthur L. Teller, 31, of 1640 E. 23rd St., Apt. 3, told police he was driving north on Namek Road when an auto pulled out rapidly from the Clark service station on Namek Road at Washington Avenue and cut in front of Teller's auto, almost striking it and causing Teller to stop his car.

The other car also stopped and Teller got out to see if the units had collided. While Teller was standing between the autos, the car which had come from the Clark station started rapidly, striking Teller and knocking him to the ground. The auto then left the scene northbound.

Police were searching for the auto when Patrolman Michael Sparks said he saw a car weaving and going on off the roadway at Pontoon and

Hike for Home Mission funds

Ten boys will depart from Calvary Baptist Church in Granite City at 10 a.m. Friday on a 10-mile hike to Cahokia Mounds State Park.

Members of Calvary Baptist Church, 3000 Washington Ave., are sponsoring the boys for each mile they walk.

The boys, all members of the Royal Ambassadors, a mission group for boys in grades one through six, are interested in helping the Home Mission Board by raising money for the Annie Armstrong Offering which is collected each Easter in all Southern Baptist Churches that support the Home Mission Board.

Through this offering, new churches can be started in the states, families in need can be helped through provision of food and medical attention, and incentives to work through provision of farming implements. Spiritual needs can be met in this way also, church officials said.

An estimated $200 is expected to be collected from the members of Calvary Baptist Church on Easter Sunday. Only members of Calvary were solicited for pledges.

The public is invited to see the boys off at the church at 10 Friday morning. Movies will be taken to be shown at a later date for the church body to enjoy. The boys estimated time of arrival at Mounds is 1:30. On arrival, the boys will be entertained and served at a weiner roast in the Park. The boys who complete the hike will be awarded the Royal Ambassador Home Missions Hiker Patch before the church body.

MR. AND MRS. RICKY P. BROWN. They exchanged wedding vows at the Pontoon Baptist Church. Formerly Miss Glenda Jo Mothershed, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mothershed, 4010 Park Lane.

Glenda Mothershed and Ricky Brown are wed

Miss Glenda Jo Mothershed, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mothershed, 4010 Park Lane, became the bride of Ricky Paul Brown, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Brown, 2208 Miracle Ave., on Dec. 10, at the Pontoon Baptist Church.

The Rev. Pat Fife officiated at the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, followed by a reception held in the Hope Lutheran Church Hall. Miss Brenda Heide presided over the guest book.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long white gown fashioned with a high neckline and long tapered sleeves, accented with Chantilly lace, edged with sequins and pearls.

The Chantilly lace hoop skirt was bordered with a deep flounce and extended into a cathedral train.

Her cathedral veil of bridal illusion was held in place with a lace tiara and she held a bouquet of red Sweetheart roses with white carnations and green baby's breath.

Maid of honor Miss Pam Hall selected a formal length lace green dress designed with a fitted bodice and full skirt, complemented with a ruffle cape.

She wore a headband of white baby's breath in her hair and she carried a colonial bouquet of green carnations, white roses and baby's breath tied with green streamers.

Bridesmaids Miss Ann Uram, Miss Greta Brown, a sister of the groom, and Miss Kathy Knipping, selected alternating red and green dresses fashioned to match the groom attendant.

Each girl wore baby's breath in their hair and they held white velvet muffs with a cluster of red roses, green carnations and baby's breath, attached.

Jeanne Cooper served as flower girl. She was dressed in a red and white dotted frock created with a full skirt accented with a white apron.

She wore red and green ribbons in her hair and carried a basket filled with assorted blossoms.

Ronnie Cooper was the ringbearer. Attending the groom as best man was Randy Brown, a cousin of the groom. Escorting the bridesmaids were Perry Hartwick, and David and Les Whittington.

Organist Tommy Wilkerson played, "We've Only Just Begun" and "Evergreen" preceding the service.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mothershed chose an aqua blue long-sleeved gown with a V-neckline and softly flowing skirt. The groom's mother, Mrs. Brown was attired in a deep yellow dress fashioned with a round neckline, edged with matching ruffle.

Both mothers wore corsages of red roses centered in white carnations enhanced with green ribbons.

Both young people graduated from Granite City High School North. The groom is presently employed as a welder at National Marine Service in Hartford, Ill.

They are residing in Granite City.

DAR Chapter earns state honor awards

The Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the DAR met over the weekend at Charlie's Restaurant with ten members and two guests present. Mrs. Ruth McCarty, vice-regent, presided over the opening sections of the meeting with Mrs. D. Reva Turner reading the President General's message.

The group voted to send a cash memorial to the Kate Duncan Smith School in Alabama in memory of the late Mrs. Gladys Chapman.

Mrs. Eva Meier, nominations committee chairman, presented the slate of officers which will be voted on at the next meeting. They are Mrs. Emma Schoen, regent; Mrs. McCarty, vice-regent; Mrs. Barbara Williams, secretary; Mrs. Margaret Bell, treasurer; Mrs. Lucille Butler, registrar; Miss Nelle Hart, historian; and Mrs. Meier, chaplain.

Mrs. Janet Wilson, regent, reported on the Illinois State Conference which met last week. The Drusilla Andrews Chapter received several honors, including a blue ribbon award from the National Organization for its program book and a gold ribbon award for conserving printing costs on the book, also the top state award, the silver ribbon, for its program book.

Mrs. Lucille Butler painted a picture of the DAR Illinois Cottage at the Tamassee School which was presented to the State Regent, Mrs. Nel White, during the schools' luncheon at the state meeting. The brass identification plate on the picture noted it was a gift from the local chapter. Mrs. Butler also entered a centerpiece in the Lincoln display contest and won the top award, "Best of Show."

As a result of these two accomplishments, Mrs. Butler has been asked to design the cover for next year's state press book, it was announced.

Guest present were Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Madama Grosvenor. Other members were Miss Nelle Hart and Mesdames Jane Vanesler, Barbara Williams, Emma Schoen, Margaret Bell, and Miss Ella Ray Smith.

Persons interested in membership in the DAR may contact Mrs. Schoen at 331-248 for information, according to the regent.

Miss Susan Weaver of Belleville, speaking for the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. slides on "Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow." She traced the progress of America which has been effected quite often by inventions from the Bell Labs.

She also spoke of new developments which we in this area may select for our own homes. One comment was that since Illinois now has the dial tone first on pay telephones, anyone can reach help even though one lacks the correct change to make a local call.

Miss Laura A. Roundcount and Dr. Robert A. Froemling whose engagement and forthcoming wedding is being announced. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gervese B. Roundcount of Eldred, Ill. Wedding plans are indefinite at the present time.

Friends of Girl Scouting fund drive in progress

By DONNA HARTWICK

Press-Record Staff Writer
Friends of Girl Scouting (FOGS) fund-raising campaign opened officially during the weekend and will continue through the month of April, according to the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council.

Spearheading the Quad-City drive are Mrs. Myra Parrish, district chairman and a member of the steering committee; Mrs. Billie Schuler and Mrs. Mary Sedekum, co-chairmen of Granite City; Mrs. Winnie Sasyk and Mrs. Julia Voloski, serving the Madison area, and Mrs. Margaret Lee and Mrs. Evelyn Tolliver, co-chairmen for Venice.

During the drive, each neighborhood will have a chairman distribute envelopes to all troops, and each girl will, in turn, give the notice to her parents for their contribution.

A survey made by the council office notes it costs $23 to supply services to support one girl in scouting for one year. In some communities there will be a community FOGS chairman in addition to a neighborhood FOGS chairman. This person will solicit outside the internal scout family of leaders, service teams and parents.

The board and staff were canvassed during February, it was noted.

There are over 100 adults that are registered as associate members who in various ways aid the Girl Scout program and are interested in the entire procedure, Mrs. Parrish reports.

Although the Girl Scout Council receives funds from the United Way, the contribution is not enough to continue the vast programs and activities on a countywide area.

Additional gifts from residents and businessmen provide recruitment and training of adults, gives a wider opportunity for the girls, special events, financial assistance, program materials and supplies, camp properties and camp equipment, council service centers and field services to troops.

The current plan and training for Girl Scouts highlight five divisions which are the "World of Today and Tomorrow," stressing activities on discovering the how and why of things, exploring and experimenting with new technologies that touch daily life, dealing with change and looking to future events, roles and responsibilities.

The "World of Arts" is an involvement in the whole range of arts, visual, performing, literary, enjoying and expressing one's self through various art forms, appreciating the artistic talents and contributions of others.

A third category is the "World of People" with activities on developing awareness of various cultures that exist in society and around the world, and on building pride in one's own heritage while appreciating and respecting that of others.

Another aspect is the "World of the Out-of-Doors," planned for enjoyment and appreciation of the out-of-doors, living in and caring for the natural environment and understanding and respecting the interdependence of all living things.

FRIENDS OF GIRL SCOUTING: Volunteer workers who are participating in the fund-raising drive to aid the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council programs. The project opened during the weekend in the Quad-Cities and will continue through April. Discussing plans for solicitations in the Quad-City area are, from left, Mrs. Billie Schuler and Mrs. Mary Sedekum, Granite City co-chairmen; Mrs. Myra Parrish, district chairman and a steering committee member, and Mrs. Evelyn Tolliver, co-chairman of Venice. Mrs. Margaret Lee, of Venice, was not present for the picture.

The final segment is on the "World of Well Being" that defines attitudes for physical and emotional health, nutrition and exercise, interpersonal relationships, the home, safety, work and leisure and consumer awareness.

Goals set for the entire program include developing awareness of self as a unique person of worth, relating to others with increasing skill, maturity and satisfaction, developing values to give meaning and direction to her life, and contributing to the betterment of her society.

Scouting does make a difference in a girl's life, a difference that will follow her through her childhood years and help determine what kind of woman she will become. Girl Scouting is a way of life, with a program with a purpose based on ideals and a code of conduct, the council officers added.

Any resident who is not personally contacted may send their donations directly to the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council, Box 430, Glen Carbon, Ill. All donations are tax deductible.

Mrs. Judy Donaldson serves as neighborhood chairman for the five troops involving 70 girls and five adults in the Madison-Venice area.

Neighborhood Two is headed by Mrs. Janis Smith and has 14 troops located at Washington, Logan, Emerson, St. Joseph and McKinley Schools. There are 180 girls and 18 adults registered in this area.

Mrs. Linda Poletie is chairman of Neighborhood Three which includes Niedringhaus, Webster, Marshall and Sacred Heart Schools. The eight troops have a registration of 160 girls and 18 adults.

There are 240 troops, 500 girls and 55 adults in the Neighborhood Four area which Mrs. Bobbi Ponder serves as chairman. Schools involved are Stallings, Lake, St. Margaret Mary, Parkview, Frohard and Wilson Schools.

Mrs. Margaret Clements is Neighborhood Five chairman for the 20 troops at Mitchell, Maryville, St. Elizabeth, Nameoki and Johnson Schools. There are 314 girls and 53 adults in this division.

The overall total in the Quad-City area amounts to 71 troops, 1,224 girls and 131 adults, according to the council tabulations.

CAMPAIGN PLANNING: Mrs. Winnie Sasyk, left, and Mrs. Julia Voloski, Madison co-chairmen of Friends of Girl Scouting fund-raising drive. They are completing arrangements to contact area residents and businessmen who wish to contribute to the project and further the Girl Scout activities.

Madison sets license fee on cycles

An ordinance providing for a $5 license fee on motorcycles and motor bikes was enacted by the Madison City Council in a regular meeting Tuesday night.

The ordinance amended the city's vehicle licensing law which was approved earlier but neglected to include fees on motorcycles and motor bikes.

The bill provides that the fee will increase from $3 to $5 for any motorist who fails to buy a license within the next 30 days.

Council members also approved a supplemental $13,000 appropriation in motor fuel tax funds for 1977 arterial highway maintenance.

The appropriation was approved to make up for expenditures in excess of the 1977 budget resulting from the unusually bad weather during the winter. Motor Fuel Tax funds are used for repair and maintenance of roads designated as arterial highways by the Department of Transportation.

Gail Miles, 2455 Woodlawn Ave., reported at 3:30 p.m. Monday, a vandal shot pellets which shattered the rear window of a camper truck and a picture window at the home.

The malicious damage was due to displaying political signs in her yard and on the truck, she speculated.

Arrest 2 in cigarette theft

A Granite City woman and a St. Louis man were arrested outside Kroger store in Nameoki Village Shopping Center at 4:45 p.m. Monday and charged with theft in connection with allegedly stealing cartons of cigarettes from Tri-City Grocery Store, 3250 Nameoki Road.

Alerted that two people had just left the Tri-City store in a car with Missouri plates, police officers located the vehicle in the Kroger lot and found Richard Hammer, 47, of St. Louis seated in the car. A grocery sack containing seven cartons of cigarettes and three cartons found beneath the front seat were confiscated.

Elizabeth Evans, 34, who listed addresses at 8 Jones Park Drive and 3908 Pontoon Road, walked out of the store and was arrested when she came to Hammer's car.

The woman was placed in a squad car, but got out of the vehicle and began to run away, according to police. She was apprehended by Sgt. Glenn Wright about 400 yards from the store.

The two were identified by an assistant manager at the Tri-City store and complaints were signed, police said.

Hammer was released at 8:30 p.m. Monday on payment of $100 cash bond. Mrs. Evans remained in custody Tuesday, pending further investigation.

Adults needed for 'Camelot'

The Masquers community theater group has held auditions for "Camelot" but is still in need of men and women to fill chorus roles.

"Camelot" takes place in the days of King Arthur and his Round Table and is "full of beautiful music," Cheryl Pikoratis, community relations chairman, said.

"If you would be interested in lending your voice to the show, to be produced May 27 in Collinsville and June 10 in Granite City, with a possible date of June 3 in Belleville, contact the director, Mrs. Betty (Howard) Darr of Belleville at 397-0326, or her assistant, James Swarick of Collinsville at 344-1823."

To call bids for equipment

A bid call for various items of cafeteria equipment was authorized by the Madison School Board last week during its regular meeting.

Permission was given to the Madison Lions Club to borrow a cafeteria mixer for an upcoming pancake brunch, and several secretaries were granted permission to attend a spring conference April 14 and 15 in Homewood, Ill.

The superintendent was requested to check what surplus desks and equipment was available for sale to the Mississippi Valley Christian School which is attempting to purchase used equipment.

Board members were invited to an energy conservation workshop April 20 at Augustine's Restaurant in Belleville, one of about six workshops the state is hosting state-wide. Energy conservation in buildings and transportation will be stressed.

A proposal from the C.J. Schlosser & Co., certified public accounting firm, to audit the district's books next year for $1,450 was accepted.

A contract was awarded to Instructor Magazine Co., the lower of two bidders, to supply various magazines to the district next year at a total cost of $1,273.

After the meeting, the board discussed a bus stop problem with a resident of the school district.

Arts Council area meeting

Residents of Belleville and the surrounding Illinois region will have an opportunity to meet and ask questions of the Illinois Arts Council and its staff when the council holds its next "listen" session in the theater at Belleville Area College, 2500 Carlyle Road, Tuesday evening, April 4.

The "listen" session will last from 7 to 9, and refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Such sessions are informal get-togethers which are being held in various communities throughout the state so the Arts Council can learn how people feel about it and its programs, as well as hear suggestions about future projects and concerns.

The IAC says it invites anyone — artists, performers, administrators or interested individuals — who would like to ask a question, make a suggestion or simply have a chance to meet with William DuVall, IAC chairman, Clark Mitze, the IAC's new executive director, and other council and staff members, to attend the meeting.

Also in Belleville on April 4, Maryo Ewell, the IAC's community development officer, will be available after the "listen" session to offer advice and counseling for organizations on how to obtain a grant from the Illinois Arts Council.

For further information on the session or the grants counseling service, Quad-Cityans may contact Raymond Modderell, 235-2700, in Belleville, or Marianne Coplan, public information officer, Illinois Arts Council, 111 N. Wabash, Chicago, Ill. 60602 — (312) 435-6754.

Given 364-day prison term

Neva Powderly, 19, of 2714 Myrtle Ave., who also uses the name Anetta Nelson, according to police, pleaded guilty last week to deceptive practices and was sentenced to serve 364 days in prison by Associate Judge Thomas Gibbons.

The sentence followed a finding she already was on parole for a felony count of theft, police said.

She was arrested Thursday at First Granite City National Bank after a teller recalled her as allegedly being the woman who cashed a stolen $80 check at the bank Wednesday. A check for $75 was found in her possession when she was arrested Thursday, officers alleged.

College defers tuition change

The Belleville Area College board met Thursday night in Collinsville and tabled a recommendation to increase tuition $2 per credit hour. This would have been a $30 raise per semester for a student taking 15 credit hours.

Vice President for Financial Affairs Jim Hines said a tuition increase was the only way he could see to avoid a $100,000 to $140,000 deficit.

Expenses would be $303,865 greater than income, he said. This year, the district started with a beginning balance of $260,430. Hines expects this balance to be only $100,000 to $140,000 this year.

"We will need to reduce spending as reflected in these early estimates in order to bring the 1978-79 budget in balance," he reported to the board.

Earns Phi Beta Kappa

Phi Beta Kappa honors were conferred last week on DePaul University senior Jayne Elizabeth Knobbe of Granite City. The school is in Greencastle, Ind.

Miss Knobbe was among 25 DePaul seniors whose election to the national scholastic society was announced by Dr. Gordon Walters, president of the university's faculty chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. Selection represents the highest academic honor possible in liberal arts and is based on the student's cumulative college grade point average.

Phi Beta Kappa distinction this year was earned by six percent of the senior class at the independent university of 2,382 students. The DePaul chapter of what is the oldest Greek letter society in America was the first established at an Indiana college or university, having been introduced in 1887 in recognition of DePaul's academic excellence.

Miss Knobbe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Knobbe, 2 Frontenac, and a 1974 graduate of Granite City High School South. She is majoring in history at DePaul.

Liz Neeley taking Equal Right campaign on road

By BARRY SMITH
Press-Record
Springfield Bureau
Equal Rights Amendment supporters are literally driving their arguments home these days by traveling to Illinois towns to get the movement rolling on the local level.
The strategy is for caravans, consisting of two National Organization for Women members, to bring a film and speeches to local groups and in that way organize "grassroots" support for the ERA.

The caravans began in Illinois in January and mark a new direction for the pro-ERA forces, said Illinois NOW action vice president Liz Neeley.
"We have been too centralized, to an extent," she said.
"This is an organizing tool to get action going in local districts. The purpose is to leave a local caravan behind to start organizing at the grassroots level."

The concept of the caravan came from Indiana, where it was instrumental in winning ratification of the ERA in early 1977, she said.

Three caravans — two from Chicago working the northern and eastern parts of the state and Neeley's, based in Granite City for Southern Illinois — are on the road an average of four nights a week.

The caravan rolled into Jacksonville Wednesday for a campaign session at Mac-Murray College.

Although supporters said the turnout for the sessions has been good, only 15 people were on hand for the caravan in Springfield. Only 20 people showed up Wednesday night at MacMurray.

The caravan, which included
Mary Clark, who chairs the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville NOW committee, and local liaison Lee Pierce of MacMurray College, maintains that a constitutional guarantee against discrimination by sex is needed.

Opposition to that view is equally adamant, as evidenced by an anti-ERA group called Pro-Family also holding meetings in Jacksonville
Wednesday.

With the deadline for ratification of ERA a year and week away, Liz Neeley said the movement's leaders were slow in organizing at the grassroots level because they hoped it would not be necessary.

"What we always believed is that the legislature would see that the ERA is good and vote for it."

"I think now that if (local organizing) should have been started at the beginning.
"But I still don't believe it's too late. We can truly ratify in 1978."

The struggle to ratify ERA in 38 states began in 1972 when it was passed by the U.S.
Congress. Three more states are needed.

Changes in pro-ERA strategy, including an economic boycott against states that have not ratified, and the caravan, have grown out of the frustrations of trying to work through other means, such as backing pro-

ERA candidates in elections, the supporters said.

"We were betrayed by candidates we supported and helped get into office who just turned their backs on us when it came time to vote on ERA," she said.

"We are just dissatisfied that we played the American game and didn't get anything."

"The fact is, when March 22, 1978 (the deadline for ratification) comes around, we're not going to turn into pumpkins," she added.

"We're still going to be around, working for women's rights."

"We've learned what the game is."

A bill is currently before the U.S. House of Representatives to extend the deadline for another seven years, and the ERA supporters are optimistic about its chances because, they argue, there are no constitutional time limits on the ratification process.

"They said that despite the six-year struggle, the ERA movement is young when compared to the suffrage efforts, and their current get-tough strategies are marking a resurgence in support."

From here on out, Pierce said, "it's going to be a no-holiday contest — and it will be until we win. And we will win."

ATTENTION ALL VETERANS

Here is your home buyers' guide. Income tax time is here again and many of you have probably wondered if you had enough refund money to purchase a home. This informative buyers' guide is being furnished by the GRANITE CITY BOARD OF REALTORS as a service to all veterans.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR A V.A. LOAN?
Anyone who has served 181 consecutive active-duty days in any branch of the armed services is eligible for a V.A. loan including World War II Veterans.

HOW DO I APPLY FOR A V.A. LOAN?
Consult one of the members of the Granite City Board of Realtors. A trained member of their staff will be happy to advise you how to apply for your eligibility certificate.

HOW MUCH DOWN PAYMENT IS REQUIRED TO PURCHASE A HOME THROUGH A V.A. LOAN?
No Down Payment is required to purchase a home through a V.A. loan.

IS THERE NO DOWN PAYMENT REQUIRED TO PURCHASE A HOME THROUGH A V.A. LOAN. WHAT WILL MY CLOSING COSTS BE?
Closing costs will be approximately 3% of the sales price of the home. For example a $25,000 home x 3% would be approximately $750. All lenders are required by federal law to send to you, the prospective V.A. Buyer, a good faith estimate of the itemized closing costs well before the closing date.

WHAT ARE CLOSING COSTS?
Closing costs are defined as those charges necessary to close the loan such as title charges, escrow accounts, loan origination fee, spot survey, hazard insurance and appraisal fees.

AS A VETERAN, IF I HAVE PREVIOUSLY USED MY ENTIREMENT, CAN I STILL PARTICIPATE IN THIS PROGRAM?
Under most circumstances, the answer is "Yes."

HOW LONG CAN I FINANCE A V.A. LOAN?
The majority of all V.A. loans are for 30 years with no discrimination because of race, creed, age, etc.

DO I NEED TO BE MARRIED TO APPLY FOR A V.A. LOAN?
The answer is No.

There are more veterans eligible now for a V.A. loan than ever before—since World War II Veteran Entitlements have been extended and veterans having used their V.A. loans previously can reuse them.

We hope this V.A. buyers' guide will encourage you to consult your local realtor. He will be happy to answer any of your questions and assist you in any way possible in the purchase of your new home.

18 Illinoisans in Japan, China to urge more food purchases

In a rare Sunday session, five members of the Japanese Diet turned out this week to hold formal talks with members of the Illinois agriculture mission in Tokyo.

The main topic was Japanese-American agricultural trade. Talks ranged from increased U.S. beef exports for the Japanese market to American assurances that Congress has adopted legislation to prevent a recurrence of embargoes of U.S. shipments of grain to Japan.

The Illinois mission is headed by Congressman Paul Findley and includes Congressman Edward Madigan. Both Illinois congressmen are members of the U.S. House of Representatives Agriculture Committee. The Japanese lawmakers included Aichi Nakao, chairman of the agriculture committee of the House of Representatives of the Japanese Diet (parliament), and Saburo Yamakawa, former defense minister and chairman of the Livestock Growers Association.

The Japanese told the Illinois group that increasing U.S. beef sales in Japan would be difficult because of age-old Buddhist dietary taboos on beef consumption.

They added that most Japanese haven't developed a taste for beef, a statement contradicted by many Japanese consumers who claim they'd eat more beef if the prices were better. In the markets, beef sells for four to ten times as much as it does in the United States.

Behind the Japanese position is the fact that Japanese agricultural policy protects the small and inefficient beef industry whose members have considerable political clout with the ruling LDP Party, the 18-member mission believes.

A key question is whether the Japanese government will continue its protectionist policy, or whether consumer demand will force it to let more lower-cost American and Australian beef into the Japanese market. Chairman Nakao, in a statement delivered in English, talked about the U.S. embargoes of grain to Japan and said, "When the supply of soybeans was stopped by Mr. Nixon, this was a tremendous shock to all Japanese, and the effects of that stoppage are still felt today.

"As we import more than 50 percent of our food, I hope you will understand that we are greatly concerned about the stability of our imported food supplies."

In discussions about the trade imbalance between the two countries which heavily favors Japan, the Japanese leaders avoided direct questions concerning increased purchases from the U.S.

When told of threats that some elements in the U.S. want to reduce purchases from Japan, the Japanese suggested that America could improve its balance-of-trade deficits by cutting back on purchases of Arab oil, which the Japanese have refused to make.

On Monday, the Illinois mission left Tokyo for Peking for talks with officials of the People's Republic of China in an attempt to expand the United States agricultural sales there.

FBI clerical job openings

The FBI is presently seeking qualified individuals nationwide to work at the FBI headquarters in Washington, D.C.

Edward D. Hegarty, special agent in charge of the Springfield, Ill., office of the FBI, says there presently are openings for clerks, typists and stenographers at starting salaries ranging from $2,053 to $8,962 per year.

Applicants must be a U.S. citizen, a high school graduate,
and pass tests for the positions sought. All must undergo a physical examination and be found qualified for the job sought.

In addition, Hegarty said, a thorough background investigation is conducted on every prospective FBI employee to determine if he, or she is qualified for FBI employment.

Many educational institutions in Washington, D.C., such as business schools, colleges, universities and professional schools, have arranged their programs so that government employees can continue their education. Additionally,
Washington offers certain historical, cultural and educational opportunities not found elsewhere.

A housing office is set up to assist in locating suitable accommodations for FBI employees in the Washington, D.C. area. Hegarty calls the job offer "an excellent opportunity for a hard-working, industrious young man or woman to begin a career in law enforcement, working in the nation's capital."

"There are opportunities for advancement, and the FBI is an equal opportunity employer."
"Individuals interested in applying should contact the nearest office of the FBI, whose telephone number is 234-6660, or write: FBI, Post Office Box
